This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

NATIONAL LAWN TENNIS ASSOCIATION

February 16, 1916.

Messrs. Wright & Ditson,
Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen:

At the Annual Meeting of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association held at the Waldorf-Astoria, New York City, February 11, 1916, the Wright & Ditson Lawn Tennis Guide was formally adopted and approved as the Official Guide for the season of 1916.

Very cordially yours,
Edwin Fuller Torrey,
Secretary.

PUBLISHERS' FOREWORD

THE publishers of the OFFICIAL LAWN TENNIS GUIDE have taken great care to have its contents as nearly correct as possible, in the hope that it will be found valuable as a book of reference.

They are always pleased to receive brief accounts of championship tournaments in any section of the United States and Canada, on or before the first of the year following the events.

They call the attention of publishers of other tennis books, magazines and papers, to the fact that the contents of the OFFICIAL LAWN TENNIS GUIDE are copyrighted; and that they do not wish the same to be used, especially the pictures, without their consent having first been obtained.

WILLIAM M. JOHNSTON
National Champion 1915

Lawn Tennis Guide

THE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

WILLIAM M. JOHNSTON, a boy of twenty years, slender of physique, never regarded as yet of championship calibre, but nevertheless, is the new National titlist.

In winning the thirty-fifth annual National lawn tennis championship in Singles, Johnston attained the pinnacle of tennis achievement at an earlier age than any other player in the history of the sport, disclosing, heretofore unsuspected, all those qualifications which distinguish a leader in the world of men,—natural ability, thought, endurance and courage.

His success was neither undeserved nor in any way the result of a "fluke," for never has a player been subjected to a harder test of merit than he in wresting the laurels of victory from his competitors. He was required to meet and defeat in person all three of the majors stars, who were regarded as the logical aspirants for the crown, beside several others of sufficient prowess to test the metal of any player, and, in the face of these great odds he performed his appointed task without faltering, in so doing displaying a brand of tennis which may be characterized as superlative.

Johnston's record in the past, although excellent, had not been markedly impressive. He may, perhaps, never attain to such towering heights again, although the chances are all in his favor. But no one can refute the statement that he won the National championship and the ranking of number one among American players for 1915 deservedly and as the result of playing tennis of an exalted kind, and his victory was a good thing for the game, indicating as it did that no one or two players can claim the title by right of possession, and also that a sound base game is, after all, the desirable one to acquire, Johnston's style being theoretically almost perfect in contrast to the more or less "freak" styles of some of our leading players.

Under the wonderfully efficient management of President R. D. Wrenn, President Myrick of the West Side Club, and their splendid committee, the externals and business side of the tournament surpassed anything ever attempted in this or any country. Courts, schedule, handling of matches, umpiring, accommodations for players and spectators, were perfect, and the galleries throughout were not only large and enthusiastic, but truly appreciative as well. The social side of the meeting was not forgotten, and in addition to many informal entertainments there was held a splendid mixed Doubles tourney in conjunction with the championship, and on the evening of the first day, a big and enthusiastic "Training Dinner" at the Hotel Vanderbilt, which proved a most delightful innovation.

The entry list numbered 128, being purposely kept down within reasonable limits, and containing less deadwood than was customary in the past. It contained almost all the leading racket wielders of the country, the chief exceptions being Murray, Fottrell and Bundy from the coast and the ex-champion Clothier, Gardner, Dabney and E. P. Larned from the East. The talent was fairly well distributed but more famous names appeared in the upper than in the lower half.

Play was started on Tuesday, August 30, rain on Monday having caused a postponement, and one round was finished each day, the finals coming on September 7. Throughout the weather was clear and hot.

Thanks to the large number of star entrants each day produced from one to several big matches and scarcely a day went by without at least one major upset, beginning with the defeat of Niles by the veteran Alexander, who "came back" into nearly his old-time form for the occasion, and ending with the victory of Johnston over the Comet in the final round.

It is of course impossible to comment, even briefly, upon all the feature matches of the event, but the progress of the leading player will indicate fairly accurately the nature of the tourney.

First and most scintillating in brilliancy was the record of the champion-to-be, Johnston. In the second round he fairly swept the clever Southerner, D. S. Watters, off his feet, winning 6-2, 6-1, 6-1. Then he met and lowered the colors of the ex-Internationalist, Karl H. Behr, late conqueror of McLoughlin and by many regarded as a logical aspirant for the title. The match was a brilliant one, but after losing the first set Johnston swept on to a dazzling victory. In the fourth round he met his clever team mate, Griffin, and after winning two sets handily ran into a streak of inaccuracy which his heady rival made the most of by evening the score. The final set was marked by an irresistible whirlwind attack by Johnston, Griffin getting but one game. He then faced his conqueror at Newport, the National champion, R. Norris Williams, 2nd, who was regarded as a certain winner. The match resulting was a marvel of speed and endurance, sets alternating until each had two. Even with Johnston fully holding his own, few guessed the true outcome of the final set. The Californian, however, as he had against Griffin, lifted his game to unparalleled heights of speed and accuracy and fairly amazed his opponent as well as the gallery with its omnipotent prowess. Williams fought to the end, but his doughty little rival's uncanny pace and marvelous ability to place, left him almost helpless, two games being the extent of his winnings in the final set. Even with this splendid victory to Johnston's credit the majority of the spectators regarded McLoughlin, the other finalist, as the probable victor in their match. The Comet, with the prestige of numerous victories over and no defeats by his fellow cityman behind him, started a wonderful attack, his game being very nearly at its summit, and he won the first set, Johnston being unable to control his marvelous drive, 6-1. Then, of a sudden the tables turned—the younger man gained the lost control and playing with the daring almost of abandon took the second set at love. The last two rose to the height established by the historic McLoughlin-Brookes battle, being almost unequalled for fierceness of play and closeness of score, but the Comet showed that he had not lacked his old-time strength and abounding energy and Johnston succeeded in winning the third at 7-5 and the fourth at 10-8, and with them the crown.

McLoughlin's path to the final round was by comparison to Johnston's easy, but his play was not as convincing as of old. After beating Mathey setless he lost one set to the schoolboy Beekman, another at 1-6 to the veteran Alexander, but reached nearly his old-time form against Pell, whom he defeated brilliantly.

Williams' record in the earlier rounds was not much more inspiring of confidence. He was forced to two long deuce sets by Inman, lost a set to Merrill Hall, whose tennis was remarkably sound on that day, and was again hard pressed by Wm. Rand of the Harvard team who, not at all awed, met speed with speed for three close sets. Rand, incidentally, had created an upset the day previous, by out-lasting Craig Biddle during a five-set contest played in broiling heat. T. R. Pell fairly earned his way into the semi-finals, playing some of the best tennis of his career in the matches prior to the one in which he was eliminated, beating Whitney, who had been too crafty and steady for the dashing Throckmorton, Washburn who had eliminated Church, Bull and I. C. Wright.

The tournament was made noteworthy in another respect. It showed the younger players still crowding confidently to the fore and pressing the veterans hard or actually downing them, and it established a mark which will be hard to surpass.

NATIONAL DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP

THE National Doubles titles followed the Singles championship into new hands last year, William M. Johnston, playing with his fellow San Franciscan, Clarence J. Griffin, coming into possession of the second as well as the first named.

The team reached the climax of a highly successful season, during which in any number of events they had demonstrated their undisputable superiority over all other pairs save the National champions, McLoughlin and Bundy, by challenging them and winning in a close hard fought five set match. The contest was held as usual in conjunction with the Singles championship last year at Forest Hills, L. I., but instead of coming early in the week the late arrival of Bundy made it necessary to play it on the day after the final match in Singles, i.e. Wednesday, September 8.

The match was watched by 6,000 eager spectators, and they got their fill of close, high-class tennis, for although the contest fell short of some historic Doubles battles in tenseness of situations it was nip and tuck throughout.

Bundy, as usual, rose to the occasion and his defense was as firm as a rock, but the Comet was not consistently at his best. On the other hand, Griffin was not up to form and it devolved upon Johnston to jump into the breach and carry his team to victory. Despite the fact that a let down on his part might have reasonably been expected, he was able to perform the task set him and he proved to be the most effective player of the quartette, losing his own service but once.

The loss of a single service game generally swung the set one way or the other so close was the play, each team in fact winning the same number of points and the victors but one game more than the vanquished. The old champions annexed the first set at 6-2, and the fourth at 6-3, Johnston and Griffin capturing the others, 6-3, 6-4, 6-3.

The summary:

National Doubles Championship

Challenge Round: William M. Johnston and Clarence J. Griffin, challengers, beat Maurice E. McLoughlin and Thomas N. Bundy, champions, 2-6, 6-3, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3.

PRELIMINARY NATIONAL DOUBLES

FIVE Doubles teams, representing as many sections of the country, including the newly organized Northwest division, joined battle on the courts of the Onwentsia Club, Lake Forest, Ill., August 10–14, to settle the question of which one should have the right to challenge the National title holders for the crowns at New York later. Two things marred the event for the spectators, rain causing a two days' interruption and the strongest contenders being drawn against each other right at the outset, the tournament, instead of progressing in intensity of interest, proving anti-climaxical. In the first match the Pacific Coast stars—Johnston and Griffin—met and defeated the Eastern title winners, Williams and Washburn, but not until five long and brilliantly-fought sets had been played. The Californians next faced and eliminated the holders of the new Northwest title, Church and Mathey again being forced to travel the full distance, the game score being even closer than in their first victory. Hayes and Burdick, Western champions, put out Grant and Thornton from the South in the semi-final round in three straight sets, but in the finals were unable to offer much resistance to the onward march of the coming national titlists.

The summary:

National Doubles Championship, Preliminaries

First Round: Johnston and Griffin (Pacific Coast) beat Williams and Washburn (East), 6-8, 6-3, 7-9, 6-4, 6-4.

Semi-Final Round: Johnston and Griffin (Pacific Coast) beat Church and Mathey (Northwest), 8-10, 8-6, 7-5, 4-6, 7-5; Hayes and Burdick (West) beat Grant and Thornton (South), 6-1, 6-0, 8-6.

Final Round: Johnston and Griffin (Pacific Coast) beat Hayes and Burdick (West), 6-2, 6-3, 6-2.

MOLLA BJURSTEDT
National Women's Champion

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP FOR WOMEN

LAST season, for the first time in the history of the National Championship for Women, the title of Singles champion of the United States went to a foreigner, Miss Molla Bjurstedt (a resident of New York and member of the West Side Club, but a native of Christiana, Norway) gaining that signal distinction. She won the event—the twenty-ninth of the series—by defeating Mrs. George W. Wightman of Boston, who before her marriage was Hazel Hotchkiss a three-times national title holder, the 1914 champion, Miss Mary Browne, defaulting. Miss Bjurstedt's victory was well deserved for her tennis was of the exceptional order, although it is fair to say that her opponent in the finals was not at her best owing to lack of participation in serious tennis events in recent years, and the effects of a severe illness in the Spring. Mrs. Wightman also had by all odds the harder row to hoe in reaching the ultimate round, meeting in order Mrs. Beard, Mrs. McLean and Miss Eleonora Sears. Each star lost one set prior to their meeting, Miss Bjurstedt to Miss Martha Guthrie, and Mrs. Wightman to Mrs. McLean.

In the final contest the Norse wonder started uncertainly, and her clever opponent bringing into play all her skill of hand and brain won it at 6-4. In order to cope successfully with the other's lightning drives Mrs. Wightman, in her poor physical condition, exhausted her energy and when, with the start of the second set she became unable to cover the court with the facility she had heretofore, Miss Bjurstedt sprang into the attack with whirlwind speed, her man-like forehand drive flashing by the fast fading Longwood star time and again for aces. Mrs. Wightman fought gamely but uselessly to the end, refusing to listen to the suggestion made by her friends that she default, prefering to give her worthy rival the satisfaction of defeating her, the score in the last two sets—6-2, 6-0—tells the story of the balance of the match accurately.

In the Double events Mrs. Wightman fared more and Miss Bjurstedt less fortunately. The former won the women's title with Miss Eleonora R. Sears as partner, although close pressed in the final round by Mrs. McLean and Mrs. G. L. Chapman—only a little better team play and the aggressiveness of the more famous one of the pair in crucial places giving them the victory.

Mrs. Wightman, paired with Harry C. Johnson of Boston, proved to be invincible in Mixed Doubles, scoring a victory in that event so complete and overwhelming that they instantly gained the reputation of being the most remarkable team in the whole history of tennis—a reputation which they sustained by going through a season of many events without the loss of a set. How exceptional was their play appears from the fact that in the final round of the National Championship tournament they met and defeated no less a team than Miss Bjurstedt and Irving C. Wright with the loss of but one game.

W. T. Tilden, Jr., won the usual "side" event for men, defeating Craig Biddle in a splendid four-set match in the finals.

The tournament, which began on June 7 and was played as usual on the turf courts of the Philadelphia Cricket Club at St. Martin's, brought out a record-making entry list—seventy-four in Singles and twenty-seven pairs in Doubles—and the contestants most of the leading players of the East.

The summary:

NATIONAL INDOOR TOURNAMENT

R. LINDLEY MURRAY, formerly of California but now living in New York, was the particularly bright star in the National Indoor Championship event, held as usual at the Seventh Regiment Armory, New York, during the week of February 12, 1916. The board court was sufficiently like the asphalt ones of his native city to put a premium on his terrific service and slashing, panther-like style of play and never once was he really closely pressed despite the presence of several of the country's best racket wielders. Murray won the Singles by defeating in succession, G. C. Shafer, C. Smith, King Smith, Waite, W. M. Washburn, who was able to capture but two games from him, and A. H. Man, the latter being the only one of the six to force a set to deuce. Man played sterling tennis, eliminating Dr. Rosenbaum and Wylie Grant, en route.

The Doubles progressed by a series of upsets, the eventual winners being Rosenbaum and Lovibond, who defeated such strong teams as Washburn and Dabney, Grant and Shafer, Whitney and Beekman, and Smith and Craigin, all of them save the last named, in straight sets. The final round went the full distance, however, the last two sets being bitterly fought and long drawn out deuce affairs.

WOMEN'S NATIONAL INDOOR TOURNAMENT

MISS MOLLA BJURSTEDT for the second time won this event. She played her usual back court driving game with deadly effect, having the shots under perfect control all the way through the tournament. Teamed with Miss Marie Wagner, her opponent in the finals, Miss Bjurstedt added another National title to her list. More interest was shown in this tournament than ever before.

NATIONAL CLAY COURT CHAMPIONSHIP

R. NORRIS WILLIAMS, 2nd, added the National Clay Court championship to his other national title by winning the fifth annual tournament, which was held—as in 1912—at the Pittsburg Athletic Association, beginning on June 26 and continuing, owing to several days of rain, until July 3. Church and Mathey won the Doubles, Miss Molla Bjurstedt the women's Singles, and Mrs. G. W. Wightman and Harry C. Johnson the Mixed Doubles.

MATHEY AND CHURCH
Winners of the Doubles

The entry list was large and representative, in spite of the absence of any Pacific Coast stars; Williams and Church had little difficulty in reaching the finals. It was their first meeting since the finals of the National Intercollegiate tourney when the Princeton player downed the new national champion and was keenly watched, but although Church captured one set and led 4-3 in the fourth, rain at that point causing a two hours' postponement, Williams was able to reassert his mastery and win a notable victory. Griffin, the 1914 champion, not being on hand to defend his title, it passed to Williams by default.

The men's Doubles brought the same pair with their regular partners, Washburn and Dean Mathey, again in opposition and the Church-Mathey combination proved convincingly superior as a team, winning the titles in straight sets.

Another repetition of history occurred during the tournament, when Miss Molla Bjurstedt, the recently crowned women's national champion, again met and defeated her chief rival, Mrs. G. W. Wightman (Miss Hazel Hotchkiss), in a three-set match in which the Boston star once more won the first set and then faded. With Harry C. Johnson, Mrs. Wightman won the mixed event, the pair still further demonstrating their invincibility in this style of play.

Julian S. Myrick, Esq., acted as referee and the management was praiseworthy throughout.

NATIONAL JUNIOR INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIP

THE first National Indoor championship event for boys under eighteen years of age, was held in the Seventh Regiment Armory, New York, during the week of December 27, and proved to be an unqualified success. The entry list was impressively large and composed of players of remarkably even ability, age and size so that there were few matches which did not produce real contests. Court demeanor and the absence of foot faulting were also most commendable throughout. The newly constituted title in Singles was captured by Elliott H. Binzen of Fordham University who won the championship in a decisive, clean cut manner. He was never pressed until the finals was reached and there won a clean cut contest from James Weber after four close sets. The latter played the harder hitting game but the new champion was the steadier and more versatile and deserved to win, his reverse service proving decidedly effective throughout.

In Doubles the tables were reversed, Weber and R. C. Rand of Harvard winning the titles from Binzen and H. Taylor in straight sets, after successfully passing their hardest test in the semi-final round, where they were close pressed by the Guiler-Banks combination.

THE NATIONAL RANKINGS

THE National ranking list for the season of 1915, prepared by the same committee as the year previous—Messrs. Fred C. Inman, chairman, Walter L. Pate, secretary, and W. Merrill Hall—and approved by the Executive Committee of the U. S. N. L. T. A., included the names of one hundred players, divided into ten groups as in 1914, only the "First Ten" being placed by number, those in the other nine groups being arranged alphabetically.

Owing to the numerous defeats suffered during the season by all the leading aspirants for highest honors, the committee's task to rate them fairly on merit was extremely difficult, but their judgment, although not always agreed with was generally accepted as sound. As was generally anticipated, the committee felt that William M. Johnston's work during the Championship meeting fully justified them in returning to the old time custom of ranking the National title holder number one, despite his decidedly mediocre play earlier in the season.

Thirty-nine names not appearing in the 1914 list are found in the 1915 ratings, most of the players dropped to make room for the new-comers having been omitted because of "insufficient data."

Many important changes appear in the succeeding classes, the younger stars having climbed rapidly in several instances.

In Doubles, William M. Johnston and Clarence J. Griffin occupy the top rung of the ladder with no question of their right so to do, but the placing of Church and Mathey ahead of Williams and Washburn gave rise to some debate.

Twenty women stars were ranked also, and the list is markedly different than the previous year's, Miss Molla Bjurstedt of course occupying the topmost place.

NATIONAL INTERCOLLEGIATE CHAMPIONSHIPS

HARVARD re-established her supremacy in Intercollegiate tennis by winning the title in both Singles and Doubles in the thirty-fifth annual National Intercollegiate championship, which was held as usual on the turf courts of the Merion Cricket Club, at Haverford, Pa., beginning September 13. The former champion, R. Norris Williams, 2nd, encountered little more than nominal opposition in Singles, the runner-up being the former Interscholastic star, Leonard Beekman, now representing Princeton, whom he defeated 6-2, 6-1, 6-2. The Doubles ended in a crimson glory, both teams in the finals representing Harvard, Williams and R. Harte winning in four sets from Caner and Curtis.

RICHARD NORRIS WILLIAMS, 2nd
Intercollegiate Champion
1915

Six colleges sent competing teams, Harvard, Dartmouth, Princeton, Yale, Cornell and University of Pennsylvania and the event was not only highly successful from a tennis standpoint but marked by unusually pleasant social features. Harvard now has 5 points and Princeton 1, on the 7 point trophy donated by H. K. Caner, in 1913.

The summary:

Singles

First Round: G. C. Caner (Harvard) beat P. Larmon (Dartmouth), 6-1, 6-2; Leonard Beekman (Princeton) beat Frank Hopkins (Yale), 6-3, 6-4; W. M. Blair (Cornell) beat W. Edwards (Penn.), 7-5, 6-2.

HAROLD A. THROCKMORTON
National Interscholastic Champion

NATIONAL INTERSCHOLASTIC CHAMPIONSHIP

HAROLD A. THROCKMORTON, the Princeton Interscholastic champion and one of the most promising younger players of the East, won a well-deserved victory in the National Interscholastic title event held in connection with the National championships at Forest Hills, L. I., during the first week in September.

Eight schoolboy stars from as many sections of the east had previously qualified at the preliminaries held under the auspices of various colleges. Throckmorton and Garland each reached the final round without losing a set, but in their meeting Garland found Throckmorton too strong for him, the coming titlist displaying, together with considerable speed and brilliancy of play, an unsuspected steadiness.

The summary:

National Interscholastic Championship Singles

First Round: Sidney Thayer (Harvard) beat H. L. Bowman (Westchester County), 6-2, 6-1, 6-3; Charles S. Garland (Yale) beat John Virden (University Schools, Cleveland), 6-1, 6-0, 6-3; H. A. Throckmorton (Princeton) beat Cornelius Boocock (Western New York Schools, Buffalo), 6-2, 6-0, 6-3; Willis R. Harlow (Univ. of Pennsylvania) beat H. C. Tremaine (Columbia), 3-6, 6-4, 6-4, 6-2.

Semi-Final Round: Throckmorton beat Harlow, 6-3, 6-2, 6-2; Garland beat Thayer, 6-4, 6-3, 6-0.

Final Round: Howard A. Throckmorton (Princeton) beat Charles S. Garland (Yale), 6-3, 2-6, 7-5, 6-3.

C. F. CUTLER
New England Intercollegiate Champion

NEW ENGLAND INTERCOLLEGIATE CHAMPIONSHIP

WILLIAMS COLLEGE carried off the lion's share of the honors and points in the sixteenth annual New England Intercollegiate championship, held as always, on the clay courts of the famous Longwood Cricket Club, Boston, during the week of May 17. C. F. Cutler of Williams succeeded Cady of Amherst in the Singles title, meeting and defeating him in the second round and beating Edsall of Dartmouth in the finals. With R. S. Maynard, Cutler also won the Doubles, the runners up being Stewart and Woodbridge of M. I. T. Amherst still leads in the race for the possession of the championship trophy with five and one-half out of the requisite eight points, the other contesting colleges standing as follows: Wesleyan two and one-half, Williams two and one-half, Trinity one and one-half, and M. I. T. one-half.

The summary:

Men's Singles

First Round: R. S. Maynard (Williams) beat J. L. Snider (Amherst), 6-1, 3-6, 6-3; S. Edsall (Dartmouth) beat P. Larmon

Second Round: Hoffman (Wesleyan) beat Maynard, 9-7, 9-7; Edsall beat Larabee, 6-4, 10-8; Cutler beat Cady, 6-1, 7-5; Stewart beat Pray, 7-5, 6-4.

Semi-Final Round: Edsall beat Hoffman, 6-3, 10-8; Cutler beat Stewart, 6-0, 6-2.

Final Round: C. F. Cutler (Williams) beat S. Edsall (Dartmouth), 6-1, 6-4, 6-3.

Men's Doubles

First Round: C. F. Cutler and R. S. Maynard (Williams) beat S. Edsall and Niles (Trinity), 6-1, 8-6; Stewart and Woodbridge (M. I. T.), beat J. A. Richards and J. Hoffman (Wesleyan), 6-3, 6-3; F. Cady and J. McClay (Amherst) beat Livermore and P. Larmon (Dartmouth), 6-1, 6-1.

Semi-Final Round: C. F. Cutler and R. S. Maynard beat Bowdoin team, 6-1, 6-0; Stewart and Woodbridge beat F. Cady and J. McClay, 6-3, 13-11.

Final Round: C. F. Cutler and R. S. Maynard (Williams) beat Stewart and Woodbridge (M. I. T.), 6-2, 6-2, 6-2.

SOUTHERN INTERCOLLEGIATE CHAMPIONSHIP

DOUGLAS WATTERS of Tulane University established his marked superiority over all other college players of the South, by winning handily in both Singles and Doubles in the annual championship event, held during the week of May 10, on the clay courts of the Country Club of New Orleans. Stacy of Texas University was his opponent in the finals in Singles, but although a hard hitter lacked the steadiness to cope with the tow-headed star.

The summary:

Championship Doubles

First Round: Stacy and Broad (Texas) beat Waters and Morris (Tulane), 5-7, 9-7, 6-3, 6-2; Watters and Bruns (Tulane) beat Tabor and Fellows (L. S. U.), 6-0, 6-0, 6-2.

Semi-Final Round: Stacy and Broad beat Young and McGill (Vanderbilt), 6-1, 6-2, 6-1; Watters and Bruns beat (Georgia Tech.), by default.

Final Round: Watters and Bruns beat Stacy and Broad, 6-3, 6-4, 8-10, 6-3.

SECTIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

BI-STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

THE annual joint championship of Ohio and Kentucky, known as the Bi-State tournament, was held last year during the week of July 5 on the courts of the Louisville country club with a representative list of contestants in each of the five events.

C. Arterburn won the "All-comers," defeating his brother in a four-set match in the final round, and walked into the title—J. J. Armstrong, the 1914 winner, not being present to defend.

Grinstead and DuRelle won the Doubles over Bixby and Caron, and in the event for women the Lyon sisters proved preeminent.

The summary:

Men's Singles

First Round: Harry Grinstead beat Frederick Bishop, 9-7, 6-2; Theodore Reichert beat W. B. Kahn, 6-3, 4-6, 6-3; Nelson Dickey beat R. H. Courtney, 6-1, 6-1; Harold Ewing beat J. R. EASTERN DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP

THE new and heretofore slightly regarded team of R. N. Williams, 2nd, and W. M. Washburn, captured the title in the Eastern Doubles tourney, which was held as usual in conjunction with the famous Longwood Bowl meeting. The winners occupied a place in the top and stiffest half of the draw, and although hard pressed to win several of their matches, always managed to pull through successfully, thanks more often to a streak of exceptional individual brilliancy by one or the other, than to consistently good team work. The entry contained several good combinations but no particularly powerful and no veteran team. Pell and Hackett were perhaps the logical favorites, but they barely managed to defeat H. C. Johnson and Craig Biddle in a long drawn out five set match; the last named slumping badly toward the end, and after taking the first two sets from Williams and Washburn handily, were smothered in the next three. Irving C. Wright and Wallace F. Johnson had a comparatively easy draw in the lower half, their best victory being a straight set win over E. P. Larned and F. C. Inman, but the chop stroke artists could capture but one set from the Harvard pair, the victors having things well in hand after the second set.

MIDDLE STATES CHAMPIONSHIP

THE youthful Princeton Interscholastic champion, Harold A. Throckmorton, won the all-comers in the Middle States championship tournament after a series of almost unprecedented up-sets and won still further laurels by playing Karl Behr, the title holder, five close sets before succombing. The entry list for the historic fixture of the Orange Lawn Tennis Club, New Jersey, was both large and weighty but all of the logical contenders for the title were eliminated en route, Touchard falling a victim to C. L. Johnston, Jr., who in turn lost to Throckmorton, and W. Merrill Hall beating E. P. Larned setless only to fall himself before the prowess of the young schoolboy star.

The former Eastern champion team of Behr and Pell won the Doubles, overcoming the challengers, C. F. Watson and C. M. Bull, Jr., in four sets. Miss Bjurstedt captured the women's Singles event, receiving a default from the title holder, Mrs. Edward Raymond, and with Miss Clare Cassel annexed the Doubles title as well.

MISSOURI VALLEY CHAMPIONSHIP FOR WOMEN

THIS annual event was undoubtedly the most interesting tournament for women ever held in this section. The large crowds which attended the play each day helped to inspire the contestants, with the result that the matches were hard fought throughout, as the scores show.

Miss Mary K. Voorhees, of Evanston, Ill., won the Singles after a very close final with Mrs. W. W. Yager, a local player.

The Mixed Doubles was won by Miss Lyle Hayes and O. J. Lockhorn, who were "pushed to the limit" by Miss Marjorie Hires and Jack Cannon.

NEW ENGLAND CHAMPIONSHIP

FRED H. HARRIS, the former Dartmouth star, captured the Singles title in the fourteenth annual tournament for the Championship of the New England States, R. Lindley Murray the Californian, winner in 1914, defaulting. The entry list numbered only thirty-six and was not up to the mark of some previous years. Harris had little difficulty in winning, although carried to four well-played sets in the final round by A. W. Merriam. J. A. Richards and W. S. Cushing won the Doubles event. The tourney was staged at the Hartford Golf Club in Hartford, Conn., beginning June 8th.

CHAMPIONSHIP OF THE NORTHWEST

GEORGE M. CHURCH, on his way East from participating in the San Francisco Exposition tournament, stopped off at Deephaven, Lake Minnetonka, Minn., entered the twenty-sixth annual tourney for the championship of the Northwest, won the "all-comers" easily, defeating Dean Mathey, in the final round, and annexed the title by conquering Joseph J. Armstrong, the standing-out holder, with the loss of one set. Their match was one of the best ever played at Deephaven, Church's driving game and better stamina overcoming Armstrong's chops. Church and Mathey won the Doubles (described elsewhere), Miss Maxfield took the women's title in Singles and Miss Davis and Armstrong won in Mixed Doubles.

The meeting was held during the week of July 24.

NORTHWEST PACIFIC CHAMPIONSHIP

THE twenty-fifth annual Pacific Northwest title event, held at the (Tacoma Washington) L. T. C. August 2, and following days, proved to be an unusually important and interesting event, two famous tennis trophies finally passing out of existence with it.

J. C. Tyler of Spokane was the hero of the meeting, winning first the Panama-American Union trophy given by Mr. Barrett to be awarded this year to the player having won the most points in this event during the years 1912–1915, and also the Chester Thorne cup, emblematic of the championship, presented twenty-five years ago. Three other prizes fell to Tyler during the tournament.

Marcus and Johns of San Francisco won the Doubles from Tyler and Kelleher and Miss Livingston of Seattle the women's Singles and—with Kelleher—the mixed Doubles, Mrs. Stafford and Tyler being the runners-up.

TACOMA LAWN TENNIS CLUB

OLD DOMINION CHAMPIONSHIP

THEODORE R. PELL of New York won his second leg on the famous Hermitage cup, by successfully defending his title in the annual Old Dominion championship tournament which was held as usual at the Country Club of Virginia, in Richmond, during the first week in June. His challenger was Carleton Y. Smith, who, playing exceptionally strong tennis, won the All-comers finals from C. M. Bull, Jr., after having eliminated F. C. Inman en route.

PACIFIC STATES CHAMPIONSHIP

THE twenty-eighth annual Pacific States championship progressed through a continued series of most astonishing upsets to a totally unexpected climax, Herbert Hahn, the intercollegiate champion, falling heir to the title, despite the fact that among the contestants were the newNational champion, Wm. Johnston, C. J. Griffin, V. D. Johns and Roland Roberts. Johnston, playing erratically and far below form, met his Waterloo in his match with Johns who, although a youngster, played like a veteran. Griffin fell a victim to Hahn in a contest in which he appeared utterly unable to call into being his well-known speed and ability to place sharply. The finals, Hahn vs. Johns, proved to be poorly played and decidedly an anti-climax.

HERBERT HAHN
Pacific Coast Champion

The surprises were not limited to the men's events by any means. Miss Anita Myers downing the National title holder, Miss Bjurstedt, and both of the strongest teams on the coast losing to school girls. Mrs. Wightman won the Singles, saving the stars from utter oblivion, and Johnston and Griffin managed to capture the men's Doubles, although playing poor tennis throughout.

The meeting was held on the courts of the California Lawn Tennis Club during the week following October 30.

PACIFIC COAST DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP

(Held at Long Beach)

WM. M. JOHNSTON and Clarence J. Griffin of San Francisco took the first step forward on their march into the National Doubles Championship by winning the titles in the annual Pacific Coast Doubles tournament, thus repeating their victory of 1914. The event opened on July 1, on the courts of Hotel Virginia at Long Beach, with twenty-five teams entered. It was originally planned to have Strachan play with Johnston, but he found that he was to be unable to make the trip East and at the last moment Griffin was selected and history shows how well the substitution worked out. The winners had no walk over in winning the event, being close pressed in several matches, especially by Herd and Dawson in the semi-finals, but they earned the right to represent the far West in the elimination tests at Chicago and eventually won the National title again for California.

The summary:

CHAMPIONSHIP OF THE SOUTH

Singles

SIXTY-FOUR contestants in men's Singles, of which number nearly one-half were visiting players, took part in the annual tournament for the Championship of the South, held on the ten clay courts of the Atlanta Athletic Club during the week of July 5th. The leading contenders in both the Singles and Doubles events proved to be unusually evenly matched and this fact, coupled with splendid weather after the opening day, made the tourney markedly successful.

B. M. GRANT AND NAT THORNTON
Southern Doubles Champions

E. V. Carter, Jr., of Atlanta, won the Singles title for the first time, defeating Phelps of New Orleans in the ultimate round rather handily 6-1, 6-1, 6-4.

The Doubles Championship — described elsewhere — was captured by Grant and Thornton. Miss Irving Murphy won the women's event easily from a field of sixteen entrants.

SOUTHERN DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP

B. M. GRANT and Nat. Thornton, of Atlanta, won the championship of the South in Doubles, and the right to represent that section in the Preliminary National Doubles later. Twenty-five teams entered the contest, which was held in conjunction with the Singles championship, at the Atlanta Athletic Club, beginning July 5, but the eventual winners were not seriously pressed until the semi-final round when they met Phelps and Bruns. Their opponents in the finals, Smith and Mansfield, captured the first two sets and seemed certain of victory but Thornton's game improved from this point on materially, and his team took the next three sets and title.

TRI-STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

THE Tri-State championship (Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky), held on the courts of the Cincinnati Tennis Club, September 11–18, inclusive, scored a tremendous hit last year, thanks to the presence of three National title holders. The galleries were big and enthusiastic, the tennis of unusually high order and the social side of the event most delightful. Johnston entered only in Doubles, winning this event with his regular partner, Griffin, from Holden and Emerson, and Griffin upheld the honor of the far west by successfully negotiating a difficult course to the finals, escaping successfully such pitfalls as the veteran, Nat Emerson, Trux Emerson and his California rival, Fottrell, and winning the title in straight sets from W. S. McEllroy. The third of the trio of champions, Miss Molla Bjurstedt, swept the women's events easily. Exhibition matches were also played by Johnston and McLoughlin.

During the entire week everything was done for the comfort and entertainment of "out of town" players. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Holterhoff, assisted by an able and hardworking committee, sacrificed their time, engagements and business to this end, and succeeded admirably.

WESTERN CHAMPIONSHIP

AN entry list of 104 contestants, including a number of the leading players from the East, South and Pacific Coast, made the twenty-sixth annual tournament for the championship of the West, held at the Onwentsia Club, Lake Forest, Ill., beginning July 31 an exceptionally interesting event. At least one upset of unusual nature occurred during earlier matches, for Heath Byford caught the National champion-to-be badly off form, and eliminated Wm. M. Johnston from the running, although the latter won the first set and gained a lead of 4-1 on each of the others.

GEORGE M. CHURCH
Western Champion

George M. Church found easy travelling up to the finals, but there lost a set to Byford in a hard fought match, and was called upon to play four sets in the challenge round before being able to pull A. M. Squair, the holder, from his pedestal. The Western championship Doubles (described elsewhere) fell to the lot of Hayes and Burdick, and Miss Carrie B. Neely annexed the women's Singles' title and with Miss Louise Pound, the Doubles as well.

WESTERN DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP

WITH the former titlists, Church and Mathey, ineligible to compete in the Western championship Doubles, since they had already won the Northwest sectional event, local teams again came into their own in the tourney which was as usual held in conjunction with the Singles championship, on the turf courts of the Onwentsia Club during the week of July 31.

The finals found as opponents the old rival teams of Walter T. Hayes and Ralph H. Burdick, and Heath Byford and Alex. Squair, and after a hotly contested match of four sets, the last of which went to sixteen games, the former pair won the title and right to represent the West in Preliminary National Doubles.

The summary:

Held at Norfolk, Conn.

DESPITE frequent days of rain and the absence of some of the headliners of other years the annual title tourney of the state of Connecticut was a successful and enjoyable meeting. It was held at the Norfolk Country Club during the week of August 3rd.

Cedric A. Major was the hero of the tourney, winning in both Singles and Doubles, with the loss of not a single set in the former, and only one in the latter event, his partner in this being Vanderbilt Ward.

Major's opponent in the finals was A. J. Veysey of Montreal, and although the play was close, the local man won, 6-2, 6-3, 6-3, employing a safe and accurate back court style.

ILLINOIS STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

THE Wanderers' Club of Chicago staged the annual state tennis title event during the week of July 12, all of the leading aspirants for the championship participating in the event, which being also favored by excellent weather was entirely successful.

The middle rounds furnished several upsets, such as the defeat of Walter Hayes by A. J. Lindauer, of J. C. Neely by Jerry Weber of the Yale team, and of Al Squair by the eventual winner of the tournament, Heath Byford, the last mentioned in a close and hard fought battle. R. H. Burdick reached the final round in the other half, but lost to Byford in a comparatively easy match.

The Doubles went as anticipated, Byford and Squair meeting and defeating Hayes and Burdick in a brilliantly played five-set match in the finals. Mrs. MacNeill won the women's title by defeating Miss Neely.

INDIANA STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

Held at Indianapolis

CHARLES S. GARLAND, the youthful Pittsburg star, won the title in the annual Indiana State Championship, beside being a finalist in the Doubles.

There were seventy-seven entries in Singles and thirty-six pairs in Doubles, for the event, which was held on the courts of the Indianapolis Tennis Association during the week of July 19th and proved to be unquestionably the best tournament ever held within the state. Local stars were somewhat handicapped because of their recent participation in a prolonged city tournament, and the visiting star had little difficulty in winning the championship, defeating N. W. Swayne, by many regarded as the likely winner, in the final round. Mackrell and Thomas won the Doubles, partly aided by the fact that the final match was the third in which Garland participated on that afternoon.

NEW YORK STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

Held at Yanundasis Golf Club, Utica, N. Y.

BOTH the Singles and Doubles titles in the annual tournament for the championship of New York were won by invading players last year, Wm. S. McEllroy and Charles S. Garland, both of Pittsburg. The first named, who is only twenty-two years old and still in college, won handily over a field of seventy, his opponent in the finals being Fred C. Inman of New York City, and with his sixteen-year-old partner captured the Doubles from a strong entry, although forced to five hard fought sets in the finals, by V. B. Ward and Dr. Rosenbaum.

PENNSYLVANIA STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

PHILADELPHIA'S famous chop-stroke artist and former international, Wallace F. Johnson, more than met his match in the finals of the State championship tournament, losing in a great cut-stroke duel to J. J. Armstrong of the Harvard team, who thus became the new Penn. State title holder. The loser, paired with A. D. Thayer, gained some slight consolation by winning the Doubles championship from E. B. Dewhurst and J. B. Carpenter, Jr.

The tournament, which was the thirty-second annual, was held at the Merion Cricket Club, at Haverford, during the week of June 14 and proved to be one of the best of the long series.

PENNSYLVANIA STATE AND EASTERN CHAMPIONSHIP FOR WOMEN

THE annual Pennsylvania and Eastern States title event for women was staged as usual on the splendid courts of the Merion Cricket Club at Haverford, and coming last year just the week before the Nationals, brought out an exceptionally large and strong entry list, there being fifty-four entered in Singles, including three former national champions, and Miss Bjurstedt who, however, defaulted in Singles. Mrs. Marshall McLean won the title rather easily and with the Norse girl captured the Doubles. The mixed event fell to the share of Miss Clare Cassel and Wallace Johnson. The tournament was played during the week of May 31-June 5.

RHODE ISLAND STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

THE annual championship meeting for the Rhode Island State title produced a stronger entry list than usual, several out of the state players entering the lists, but a local star, R. N. Dana of Pawtucket, was the man to win out in Singles, his opponent in the finals being B. C. Law of Philadelphia and Princeton, whose play was brilliant but too unsteady. A Boston team, Josiah Wheelwright and H. C. Greenough, won the Doubles as the result of consistent team work.

The meeting was held during the week of August 9, at the Agawam Hunt Club.

WASHINGTON STATE TOURNAMENT

JOE TYLER of Spokane won the Singles' title in the twenty-fifth annual championship of Washington State, over a strong, well-balanced field of contestants, the entry list including H. V. D. Johns, 1914 champion, and Hugh Kelleher of the Harvard team. The last named reached the finals in the upper half, disposing of Johns in the preceding round in a close and hard fought match, and he took the first set from Tyler at 7-5 before the Spokane star struck his stride. Paired together, Tyler and Kelleher were altogether too strong for the other teams in Doubles, although forced to two deuce sets in the finals by Fulton and Russell. Miss Livingstone was the headliner in the women's and mixed events. The event was played last year at the Seattle Athletic Club, having been transferred from the courts of the Seattle Tennis Club at the last moment, the tourney beginning on August 9.

GROUP OF TENNIS PLAYERS AT PARKERSBURG COUNTRY CLUB, PARKERSBURG, WEST VIRGINIA

WEST VIRGINIA STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

THE tenth annual invitation tennis tournament for the championship of West Virginia, opened on Monday, August 9, with a classy entry of forty players on the clay courts of the Parkersburg Country Club, Parkersburg, West Virginia.

The tennis was of a high order throughout the tournament and deserving of special mention was the splendid form displayed by T. Mack. Cummins of Wheeling, the former Cornell captain, who played through to the finals without the loss of a set and partnered with Arthur Ebbert, also of Wheeling, won the Doubles title.

R. A. Johnson, last year's Singles champion, was regarded by many as a likely finalists, but lost in the semi-finals to Hugus of Wheeling.

Players and guests were entertained with a dance at Terraping Park on Monday evening, and on Wednesday evening with a large tournament dance at the Club, which proved to be the social feature of the week. Other informal affairs helped to round out and make this one of the most enjoyable and successful meetings ever held at the Club.

LONGWOOD

THE fall invitation tournament for women, held at the historic Longwood Cricket Club during the week of September 27, produced a memorable clash between Miss Molla Bjurstedt and Mrs. G. W. Wightman, her chief rival, who once again met in the final round after marching triumphantly through a strong field. The match was one of the most notable ever played by women, Mrs. Wightman performing marvelously for a set and a half and then again tiring fast, her opponent, rising as she failed and winning out 5-7, 6-2, 6-2, with a display of almost perfect and very fast tennis. Mrs. Wightman had her revenge in the women's and mixed Doubles, however, with Miss E. R. Sears winning the former event from Miss Bjurstedt and Miss Sheafe handily, and with H. C. Johnson, the latter, from the Norwegian and I. C. Wright.

LONGWOOD COVERED COURTS INVITATION

THE National Singles Champion, R. Norris Williams, 2nd, captured both events in the first of the season's tournaments in the East,—the Longwood Covered Court title tourney, held at Chestnut Hill, Mass., on March 25, 26, and 27. The list of contestants was rather smaller than in 1914, only two New Yorkers, Pell and Prentice, were entered. Jed Jones from Providence and A. J. Veysey from Montreal also participating. The calibre of the play was high throughout. Williams won the Singles in a close match from Harry C. Johnson, and paired with him captured Doubles in a five-set royal battle against Niles and Dabney.

NASSAU INVITATION

THE former internationalist, Karl H. Behr, was in almost old-time form in the annual invitation tourney of the Nassau C. C., held at Glen Cove, L. I., on Thursday, July 1st and days following, winning the Singles from ex-Champion W. J. Clothier, 4-6, 6-4, 6-2, 6-4, after working his way through a draw of high calibre. Clothier, playing with A. S. Dabney, scored in Doubles, their opponents in the final round being C. Major and A. H. Man, Jr.

CRAIG BIDDLE
Chairman Newport Invitation Tournament

NEWPORT

WITH the National championships lost to it, the Newport Casino last year inaugurated a new invitation event and the capable management, headed by Craig Biddle, bent every effort to make the tournament an unqualified success. Their labors were rewarded almost beyond the bounds of expectation and the newcomer among the tennis annuals immediately took its place as by all odds the best of the invitation events, and perhaps the second best tourney of the whole season. All the form and externals of the former National title events were present, but there was a new and delightful spirit of friendliness and comradery, engendered and fostered by the popular committee chief, always noticeable. The galleries were large, more enthusiastic than ever, and the tennis of the highest order throughout, as was natural, for the fifty contenders included practically all of the leading stars of the country and there was almost no deadwood requiring elimination.

Seldom has there ever been a tournament so completely filled with long, hard-fought matches from start to finish, every day producing from one to half a dozen stellar attractions and near up-sets.

The California Comet dominated the lower half, although close pressed in the fourth round by Wallace F. Johnson and in the semi-finals by Niles whose play reached its pinnacle of power in this match, and Williams came through successfully though less impressively in the upper half, being carried to five sets by both Bull and W. M. Johnston. His match against the man who was to succeed him in the National championship title was one of the most brilliant ever fought at Newport, Williams being in top form and Johnston good enough to have defeated any other player that he might have met that day. Several other exceptional matches marked the journey to the finals, among which may be mentioned the splendid matches played by D. S. Watters, the youthful Southerner, and by Harry C. Johnson, against N. W. Niles.

The finals again brought the two great natural rivals, Williams and McLoughlin, into opposition, and as in the never-to-be-forgotten championship on 1914, the Easterner rose to the occasion and playing as he had the year before, bore down the Comet with deadly power and speed, winning almost easily after the first set. Sixteen teams entered the Doubles, several of the best in the country being included, but none was able to cope with or stop the onward march of Johnston and Griffin, who lost but one set, to Williams and Washburn in the finals.

Throughout, the weather was absolutely ideal and the players were entertained lavishly.

The summary:

SEABRIGHT INVITATION

THE annual invitation tourney of the Seabright Country and Lawn Tennis Club held on August 8 and days following—a date some weeks later than in past years—was highly successful both as to the calibre of the contestants and the interest engendered in the matches, which, for the most part, were hard fought but went as was expected. The finals furnished a startling exception, however, for Karl H. Behr treated McLoughlin to a straight set defeat, the winner being in superlative form, and McLoughlin, who was seriously affected by the extreme heat, was his true self only spasmodically. Even so, the match was bitterly fought, the score being 8-6, 7-5, 7-5. On the following day Behr challenged Williams, the standing out titleholder, and captured the first set, but the champion, who had started erratically soon warmed up to his work and by clean, hard hitting won the next three without being seriously threatened.

The Doubles ended in a rather hollow victory for McLoughlin and his California partner, Ward Dawson, few of the other teams being of the first class.

The summary:

SLEEPY HOLLOW INVITATION

G. F. TOUCHARD of New York won the Spring invitation tournament of the Sleepy Hollow Country Club, Scarsdale, N. Y., the event commencing on May 15 and ending, after many interruptions by inclement weather, on June 5. Most of the leading Metropolitan stars were among the contestants, Touchard meeting and defeating F. B. Alexander in the final round, 1-6, 6-4, 6-2, 12-10. Robert Le Roy and Dean Mathey created somewhat of a surprise by winning the Doubles from a strong field, defeating the ex-National champions, Hackett and Alexander, in the finals, 7-5, 6-8, 6-0.

SOUTHAMPTON INVITATION

ROBBED of some of its erstime glory by the fact that it followed instead of preceding the Newport meeting as in the past, and several of the leading stars of the country elected not to compete in it, so that they might save themselves for the coming Nationals, the annual Southampton Invitation tourney was nevertheless an excellent meeting, most of the cracks being in the draw.

It proved to be a tourney of surprising upsets, both Johnston and Griffin falling straightset victims to T. R. Pell, and the back hand star then succombing in the finals to the machine-like play of Watson M. Washburn, who won the Singles title from him in a four-set match. In Doubles the leading team of the country, Johnston and Griffin, hung another scalp at their well-decorated belts, defeating Church and Hall in the finals.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert LeRoy won the mixed event over a strong field of thirty-six pairs. The tournament was held as usual at the Meadowbrook Club, beginning on August 23.

TOURNAMENTS OF 1915

DAYTON COUNTRY CLUB

THE third open tournament of the Dayton (O.) Country Club, held September 20–25, had almost a National flavor, Clarence J. Griffin winning the men's, and Miss Bjurstedt the women's Singles, and Champion Johnston and Maurice McLoughlin participating in exhibition Doubles.

I. C. Wright won the "all-comers" over C. P. Trask of Indianapolis, and challenged the holder, Griffin, the latter winning a splendidly played contest, 6-2, 6-3, 6-4.

Playing together, these two won the Doubles, defeating all their rivals setless. Miss Bjurstedt had no difficulty in proving herself the star woman player, taking the Singles title by the default of Miss Dodd and winning the Doubles with Mrs. Neely.

GREAT LAKES CHAMPIONSHIP

BY reason of the default of the holder of the Great Lakes and Western New York title, C. J. Griffin, who was not East to defend, the winner of the All-comers, Vanderbilt B. Ward, stepped into the two-fold title. L. F. Gilbert, a local star, reached the finals in Singles by playing sterling tennis, but could make no headway against Ward.

Ward, playing with Sidney Thayer, had little difficulty in winning the Doubles, and Miss Edith Rotch proved herself easily the best of the women players in Singles.

LONGWOOD CHALLENGE BOWL SINGLES

MAURICE E. McLOUGHLIN, the standing out title-holder, removed another Longwood challenge bowl from competition on August 6, by winning from the challenger, R. Norris Williams, 2nd, in four sets, on an afternoon that could scarcely have been worse as to external conditions, for one of the biggest tennis matches of the season. Owing to the rainiest week in the history of the event, the court on the day of the challenge match was little better than a morass, the balls—supplied with lavish liberality—became water soaked almost instantly, and the air was throughout filled alternately with a thick Scotch mist or drenching drizzle. Yet, despite these abominable conditions, nearly two thousand enthusiasts were present to witness the meeting of the two tennis giants, and the match, although a parody on high class tennis, was highly interesting.

William's more conservative driving game was affected far more disastrously than the Comet's, for the latter, being more versatile, was able to adapt himself with greater success to the abnormal conditions. With good judgment, the Californian elected to play a safe backcourt game, employing a chop stroke almost entirely, by using which he was able to keep the ball in the air and in play until his opponent sooner or later drove it out when he gave it sufficient elevation to clear the barrier, or into the net—the heavy sphere dropping rapidly when the champion used his customary hard low drive.

Even more marked disparity appeared in the mental attitude of the two contestants. McLoughlin took the conditions philosophically and smiled over his mishaps, but after sliding around the court for a while, and falling flat on his face once, Williams became materially upset. Nevertheless, the first two sets were very close and the challenger won the third handsomely, but the Comet captured the deciding one in a decisive fashion, for the first time going to the net consistently.

The earlier rounds were also seriously marred and delayed by the wet weather, but Williams dominated them completely, winning in succession from Roberts, Watters, Gardner, Griffin, Johnston (the man who was later to defeat him for the national title) and Niles. The final round against the ex-Massachusetts titlist was a wonderful exhibition of high-grade tennis—Williams playing an almost perfect game and allowing Niles but two games in three sets, although the latter was in excellent form.

Two players made an unexpectedly good showing in the preliminary rounds, D. S. Watters, the youthful leading player of the far South, defeating Ward Dawson of California handily and forcing the third set of his match with Williams to eighteen games; and George Wightman, a hitherto little regarded player of the Longwood Club, first eliminating Dabney and then carrying the state champion, G. P. Gardner, Jr., to the full quota of sets. Biddle, too, showed a marked improvement as a Singles player, defeating Seaver and forcing Niles to extend himself to the limit.

The historic meeting was played on the club's turf courts in Boston, and beginning on July 26, did not finish until August 6, the Eastern Doubles, held as usual in conjunction with it, being given precedence toward the end. Seventy-eight contestants played in the event, which despite the external handicaps, was run with the smoothness which has become characteristic of Longwood meeting.

THOUSAND ISLANDS TOURNAMENT

Held at Thousand Islands Country Club

A MOST successful tournament, despite rainy weather was held on the courts at Wellesley Island, Alexandria Bay, N. Y., during the week of July 12, many players of national prominence being entered in the several events. C. M. Bull, Jr., of Brooklyn won the men's Singles from Irving C. Wright of Boston, in a hard fought match in the final round. Clarence Hobart and H. Vilas were victorious in men's Doubles, but the big feature and surprise of the meeting was the defeat of Miss Molla Bjurstedt, National Woman Champion, by Mrs. McLean, whose resourceful, steady play and strong service upset the Norse star's brilliant game, and gave the New Yorker the match at 6-3, 7-5.

MIAMI, FLORIDA, TOURNAMENT

The first annual tournament of the Miama Tennis Club was most encouraging to tennis enthusiasts in this section. Although the entry was not large, it no doubt will increase next year to a tournament which will make its place in the winter circuit, coming as it does between the tournament at Nassau and the one at Palm Beach.

Mr. George S. McClure deserves a lot of credit for the way in which the tournament was run and the way in which he entertained the out-of-town guests. The winners of the different events and the scores of same follow:

PINEHURST MID-WINTER TOURNAMENT

THE annual Mid-winter tournament at Pinehurst was full of surprises. In the Singles Jed Jones of Providence after having his opponent 2 sets to 1 in the final match, was defeated by Harold Throckmorton. In the Doubles, Jones and Mackinney were defeated by Throckmorton and Seaver in the play-off 6-3, 7-5, the match having been called off the day before at 2 sets all, on account of darkness.

Miss Weber had a fairly easy time in the women's Singles. The week was a most enjoyable one throughout. "Doodle" Page gave his annual tournament smoker which is always looked forward to.

MISCELLANEOUS TOURNAMENTS OF 1915

The Louisville tennis league with six teams made its first appearance in 1915, two series of inter-club matches being played during the season which lasted from June 5 to August 28.

As a side event during the National championships an invitation mixed Doubles was held, the event being finally won by Mrs. George L. Chapman and G. M. Church.

The ninth yearly Long Island title tourney ended in a victory for S. H. Voshell, who lost but one set,—that to G. A. L. Dionne in the final round, the score being 6-0, 6-4, 3-6, 6-2. The event was held at the Kings County T. C. in Brooklyn, beginning June 26.

The seventh annual open tournament of the Iron Mountain L. T. C. of Jackson, N. H., was played on August 9 and week following. The entry was large and galleries enthusiastic, and the event went down as the best of the series to date.

The Berkshire County championship held at the Pittsfield County Club, beginning September 4, was a highly successful event, W. S. Cushing winning the Singles title for the third successive year, and with D. T. Dana the Doubles as well.

The first half of the second annual open tourney of the Grinnell (Iowa) Country Club, held July 26–31, was played indoor because of a three-days' down pour but the event nevertheless proved a most enjoyable one. Joseph G. Van Ginkle of Des Moines won in Singles from H. L. Beyer, and Beyer and Somers captured the Doubles title without dropping a set.

The Western New York Interscholastic championship tourney, played at the Park Club, Buffalo on June 7 and following days, wound up in a victory in Singles for Cornelius Boocock of Nichols School, his opponent in a well-played match in the finals being Chester Gale. The Lafayette team captured the school trophy.

The annual open tournament of the Hotel Aspinwall at Lenox, Massachusetts, held during the week of August 16, resulted in a victory in Singles for Hunting Worth, G. and E. Dunn won the Doubles titles, Mrs. A. H. Chapin the women's Singles, and Miss Isabell Pratt and E. S. Chase the Mixed event.

R. C. Seaver of Boston won the all-comers' in the Connecticut Valley championship, held at the Springfield (Mass.) Country Club during the week of June 28, defeating A. J. Veysey of Montreal in the finals and successfully challenging "Jed" Jones for his title. Cooper and Wiley were the successful team in the Doubles competition

Victor Goddard won the Cherokee (Ky.) invitation tourney held during the week of July 19, winning in the finals from Scott Hallenburg. Pflum and Reichert captured the Doubles. Miss Madelle Lyons the women's Singles and with Miss Bingham the Doubles, and Miss and Mr. Sweeney won in the Mixed event.

In the Falls City (Ky.) tournament, held at Central Park, June 25–July 9, inclusive, Harry Grinstead won the Singles title, Lewis Hardy of Memphis, the standingout holder defaulting. Vaughan and Barfield won in Doubles and Miss Madelle Lyons and her sister captured all the events for women.

S. Howard Voshell of Brooklyn, won the most notable victory of his tennis career by capturing the annual invitation tournament of the Rockaway Hunting Club, held at Cedarhurst, L. I., July 19–24 inclusive. Twenty-four high class players entered the contest, Voshel winning the finals in straight sets from T. R. Pell. Hackett and Pell annexed the Doubles.

The fourth annual championship of the Central West for Women, played at Kansas City during the week of June 21st, brought out a big entry list, sixty competing in Singles. Miss Mary Voorhees won the Singles title after a hard fight throughout the event, defeating Miss Louise Pond in the finals, 3-6, 6-4, 6-4; Miss Carrie B. Neeley and Miss Pond captured the Doubles.

Cedric A. Major of New York won his first leg on the three year cup, defeating Frederick R. Budlong, the 1914 holder, in the final round in Singles, and with Peaslee won in Doubles, also. In the events for women players, Miss C. Small captured the Singles title, Miss J. Gott and Miss C. White, the Doubles, and Miss Small and Mr. Martin, the Mixed Doubles.

The annual open tournament of the Squirrel Island A. A. for the championship of Southern Maine, played on August 21 and following days with the largest entry list in the history of the event, ended in a victory in the Singles for Nat H. Bundy, of Norfolk, Va., who defeated the trophy holder, E. E. Porter of Newton, Mass. The Doubles went to Bundy and C. F. McIntosh, also of Norfolk, and Miss Maida Flanders of Newton won the women's Singles.

The second annual tourney of the Chicago Beach Club, held on June 26 and days following, brought out a large field of Chicago stars and sevéra visiting players, Walter Hayes emerging triumphant by defeating the other popular favorites Holden and Byford in the semi-final and final rounds respectively. Paired with Burdick, Hayes won in Doubles as well and in Mixed Doubles with Miss Pound. Miss Carrie B. Neely captured the women's Singles.

The regular Coronado tourney, held at Coronado Beach, March 16-20 inclusive, ended in a clean cut victory for Clarence J. Griffin of San Francisco in Singles, his opponent in the final round being Alphonso Bell, whom he defeated 6-3, 6-2, 6-3. Browne and Wayne won the Doubles, and Miss Florence Sutton the women's Singles and Doubles as well, her partner in the latter event being Miss Marjorie Wyatt.

The annual tournament of the Arundel Casino, Kennebunkport, Me., held during the week of August 23 ended in a two-fold victory for J. W. Wear. F. H. Baird was his victim in the final round of Singles, the score being 6-0, 6-2, 2-6, 6-2, and playing with W. A. Trotter he won the Doubles from Dr. W. A. Bradford and Dr. G. H. Powers, 3-6, 6-2, 2-6, 6-2, 6-4. Mrs. H. H. Smith captured the trophy in women's Singles and with Miss C. Cousins the Doubles also, the mixed event being won by Mrs. Smith and C. B. Jennings.

The East vs. Far West Exhibition Tournament held on the asphalt courts of San Francisco during the second week of July, in connection with the Panama-Pacific Exposition, resulted in a clean sweep for the Pacific Coast players, both in the tournament itself and the team matches. The Eastern team, lead by Champion Williams, and made up of Williams, Watson M. Washburn, George M. Church and Dean Mathey, found the unfamiliar hard courts and high winds very little to their liking, in no case doing justice to their possibilities, whereas the Californians all played sterling tennis. All of the visitors except their Captain met defeat early in the tourney and he lasted only until the semi-finals round before being beaten in this by Griffin. He lost to Johnston, who carried McLoughlin to five sets in the finals before succombing.

The annual Omaha City championship was held during the week beginning July 17 on the courts of the Omaha Field Club, with a large entry list, fifty-one players entering in Singles, and conditions perfect.

The Singles title was won by an eighteen year old boy, Russell Larmon, who eliminated the four-time champion, Harry Koch, en route, in the best match ever played between local stars, nearly 2,000 spectators watching it. Koch and Scribner won in Doubles, over a field of fifteen teams.

Following the National championships there was staged at Forest Hills a return intersectional team match between much the same players who had met on the Pacific Coast in the Spring.

This time the Eastern contingent was successful by a score of four matches to two. Johnston showed the natural let-down after his great victories in the championships, and lost to Williams in four sets, and Pell defeated Bundy and Niles and Griffin, only McLoughlin scoring in Singles for the far west. He gained his revenge for the earlier defeat at the hands of Behr by downing the New Yorker in a fast four-set match.

In Doubles the new champions again demonstrated their superiority over Williams and Washburn, winning in straight sets, but McLoughlin and Bundy fell victims to Behr and Pell.

Craig Biddle of Philadelphia and Miss Eleonora Sears of Boston shared the honors in the fourth annual tournament of the Hot Springs Golf and Tennis Club, held during the week of October 11. Biddle won the Singles, successfully challenging Fred C. Inman who has two legs on the challenge trophy, and with Edgar Scott captured the Doubles. Miss Sears won in women's Singles from Miss Marion Fenno in a hard-fought match and playing with her won the Doubles. The two stars of the event, paired in mixed Doubles but lost in the finals to Miss Fenno and B. S. Prentice.

Philadelphia had this year its first indoor tournament. There were fifty-two entries in men's Singles including the best players in and around Philadelphia. The events consisted of men's Singles and Doubles, women's Singles and Doubles, and Junior Singles and Doubles.

The men's Singles was won by W. E. Davis; Doubles by W. E. Davis and J. T. Thayer.

Women's Singles was won by Mrs. Gilbert A. Harvey; Doubles by Mrs. Phyllis Walsh and Mrs. Gilbert Harvey.

Junior Singles was won by Searing Wilson. and Doubles by Nelson Billington and H. R. Dornheim.

The Anchorage Country Club got away in the lead, and was only displaced once, that being by the Louisville Boat Club, which held the position for only a short time, the Anchorage Club coming right back to the top. The final standing of the clubs was as follows:

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Anchorage	25	9	.736
Pastime	20	16	.556
River Valley	17	16	.516
Louisville B. C.	17	17	.500

Standard Club	11	23	.324

TENNIS IN HAWAII

THE year 1915 was a banner year for tennis in the Hawaiian Islands. The quality of play improved, and there was a more general interest taken in the game, not only among the players, but by the spectators.

The tennis year opened by an invitation Doubles' tournament given by the Pacific Tennis Club in early February, which introduced Mr. E. P. Larned to the Honolulu public. The finals were sensational in the extreme, Castle and Eklund defeating Larned and Lowrey, 14-12, 1-6, 6-4, 9-11, 8-6, a total of 77 games, of which the losers took 39 and the winners 38.

This event was followed shortly by the Mid-Pacific Carnival tournament, February 20-27. Perfect weather prevailed throughout, and the average attendance was about five hundred each day, which showed that tennis is a popular game in Honolulu. Mr. W. M. Johnston, our present champion, Mr. Henry C. Breck, the University of California captain, and Mr. E. P. Larned were the visitors in the tournament. Johnston had played before in Honolulu, where he is a great favorite, and he proved to be in a class by himself. No one could withstand his forehand attack when it once got going, as it did in the finals against Larned, which Johnston won easily, 6-2, 6-1. It is only fair to Larned, however, to say that he displayed better tennis in the early rounds.

No regular Doubles event was held, but in exhibition matches Johnston and Breck defeated Hoogs and Argabrite, 6-4, 6-4; defeated Larned and Lowrey, 6-4, 6-3, 8-6; but lost to Castle and Eklund, 6-3, 2-6, 6-4, 6-2.

Following the Mid-Pacific Carnival by some two months, and with the stars from the mainland gone, the Hawaiian championships were a sort of anti-climax, so it is probable that they will be scheduled to follow immediately the Carnival tournament hereafter. The championships resulted in a triple win for W. N. Eklund of Ewa Plantation, after a narrow escape from defeat at the hands of Lowrey in an early round. In the finals he defeated Castle, his old-time rival and partner in the Mid-Pacific Carnival; paired with O'Dowda, a club-mate, he defeated Castle and Warren in a close match in the finals of the Doubles; and, paired with Miss Hopper, winner of the ladies' Singles, defeated Miss Schaefer and Castle in the mixed Doubles. He played a steady and consistent game throughout, and fairly earned his title.

The tennis year ended with the annual Inter-Club Championship. Led by Eklund, the Ewa Tennis Club was looked upon as a certain winner of the preliminary rounds, and by many as a probable victor over the Beretania Club, the holder of the cup. The unexpected happened, however, and the Pacific Tennis Club defeated Ewa in the finals, three matches to two. Pacific was in turn decisively defeated by Beretania in the challenge round, four matches to one, Beretania winning the three Doubles and one of the Singles, and needing now only one more win to obtain permanent possession of the cup.

Following are the summaries:

CHAMPIONSHIP OF THE ORIENT

KUMAGAE, three times champion of Japan, was the winner of the 1916 Championship of the Orient, held at Manila. His win was well earned, as the entry included players of well-known ability, among whom were Griffin and Dawson of California.

KUMAGAE
Champion of the Orient, 1916

The Doubles was won by the Americans, but the match with Kumagae and Mikami in the finals was a fire and hard contest.

Large galleries saw the important matches. From the interest and enthusiasm Manila proved itself to have a real tennis atmosphere.

ANTHONY FREDERICK WILDING

THE United States and all of tennisdom join with Great Britain and New Zealand in mourning the death of one of the most splendid figures in the history of the game, and the whole world of sport,—Anthony F. Wilding,—who was killed in action at La Bassee, in Northern France, on May 10, 1915, a victim of the Great War. In Wilding's untimely death—he was but thirty-one and still at the zenith of his power as a player—tennis suffers an almost irreparable loss. America mourns his loss as that of a friend, a manly rival, a generous and modest conqueror and, best of all, a perfect loser. Wilding volunteered early and at the time of his death was a Captain in the Armoured Car Section of the Naval Air Service.

LAWN TENNIS NOTES

The ever-growing popularity of tennis is constantly evidenced in new ways. Last year witnessed the building of splendid indoor courts for winter and night play in several cities, among them being Buffalo, Indianapolis and Montreal. Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Brooklyn, Utica and Providence have had them for several years.

If this continues the time will eventually arrive when the handicap upon the snow bound north and east when in competition with the sunny Pacific Coast, where tennis may be played the year 'round, will be at least in part removed. Another sign of the times is the increase in popularity of junior tournaments, which tend to make for the rapid improvement of boy players, and of "father and son" events, which indicates that the older men are still keenly interested in tournament competition.

America lost one player of more than average ability last year in the death of Herbert M. Tilden one of Philadelphia's leading experts. He died of pneumonia on September 22. Mr. Tilden was born in Germantown, November 3, 1886, received his education at the Germantown Academy and the University of Pennsylvania, and at the time of his decease was holder of the Pennsylvania and Delaware State titles in Doubles. His loss is deeply felt.

Of the fourteen men who have held the national championship in Singles all but two—M. E. McLoughlin and Wm. M. Johnston—have been either college graduates or in college at the time of their conquest. Harvard University leads the list of mothers of champions, having produced eight. They are Richard D. Sears, R. D. Wrenn, F. H. Hovey, M. D. Whitman, Halcomb Ward, B. C. Wright, W. J. Clothier and R. N. Williams, 2d. Yale, Columbia and Cornell each claim one,—H. W. Slocum, O. S. Campbell and W. A. Larned respectively, and one, H. L. Doherty, came from Cambridge, England. Only five of the fourteen had previously captured the National Intercollegiate title as well—Hovey, (1890, 1891), Larned (1892), Whitman (1896), Clothier (1902), and Williams (1913, 1915).

The GUIDE suggests that not only every tennis player but also those interested in tennis, subscribe to the official paper of the N. L. T. A., "American Lawn Tennis." It is most interesting and keeps one in touch with the latest news from every corner of everywhere. A paper like this should be encouraged for the interest of the game.

Eastern players should make it a point, if they possibly can arrange it, to take in some tournaments in the middle West. They generally run one after the other, such as Charleston, W. Va., Cincinnati, Dayton, Kansas City, Indianapolis, etc., or in such a way that two or three can be taken in without losing time.

The enthusiasm and keenness in this section is remarkable and the hospitality beyond description. It is a good thing for tennis for players to play in tournaments outside of their own section, this is not done half enough. It is not only a good thing to see how the other fellows play, but how they "do things."

The GUIDE would appreciate it if the chairmen of the different clubs and associations would send in an account of their tournaments immediately after the event is held.

Clarence J. Griffin of California was defeated by Kumagæ, champion of Japan, in the final match for the Far Eastern championship which was held at Manila in January.

The season of 1915 brought into competition three of the greatest women tennis stars that ever graced the court, the National champion Miss Molla Bjurstedt, of Christiana, Norway, representing New York, and the two former champions, Mrs. Thomas C. Bundy (Miss May Sutton) of Los Angeles, and Mrs. George W. Wightman of Boston (Miss Hazel Hotchkiss of Los Angeles). In the earlier tournaments in the East the first named demonstrated her superiority over Mrs. Wightman by winning three of their four meetings, but in each case the match took three sets and it was nip and tuck between them until Mrs. Wightman tired physically. As a result of these meetings discussion ran high as to the relative merit of the young Norse wonder and the peerless player, May Sutton, who had competed in little serious tennis since her marriage three years ago. Miss Bjurstedt was prevailed upon to make the trip to the Pacific Coast and Mrs. Wightman went too, so that it was possible to arrange a series of Round Robin meetings between the three stars. The first was held at the California Lawn Tennis Club, beginning November 12. During it Miss Bjurstedt again defeated Mrs. Wightman in a characteristic three-set contest. Mrs. Bundy did likewise, winning 6-2, 4-6, 6-4, but although she forced the new National titlist to three fast sets in the third match Miss Bjurstedt won as she had against Mrs. Wightman, by outlasting her, the scores being 10-8, 6-2.

The next meeting was held on the courts of the Hotel Virginia, Long Beach, a fortnight later. Mrs. Wightman did not compete, but ex-champion Miss Mary Browne, and Miss Florence Sutton did. Miss Bjurstedt defeated both the others but lost to Mrs. Bundy, 6-1, 6-4.

The rubber match between Mrs. Bundy and Miss Bjurstedt was played at Los Angeles December 11, and this the Californian won after three close fought sets, giving her the edge over the champion.

Youth will be served. The everlasting truth of the adage was never better exemplified than during the tennis season of 1915. Not only was the National title in both Singles and Doubles won by a lad who had not yet attained his majority, but all over the country the "youngsters" forged to the fore, either closely pressing their elder brothers or actually downing them. The championship also gave William Rand, 3rd, of the Harvard team, F. H. Hunter of Cornell, Douglass S. Watters of New Orleans, Charles S. Garland of Pittsburg, Ward Dawson of San Francisco, and last but not least the new Interscholastic champion, Harold Throckmorton, a chance to show their metal, and each of these had one or more excellent victories in other events to their credit.

In the far West, Herbert L. Hahn of Stanford University won the Pacific States tourney over a field which included the new National champion and many other high ranking players, and in the central West the same thing was constantly noticeable.

Last season saw the formation of at least one new and promising tennis club. The Rockhill Club of Kansas City was organized in November and its full quota of two hundred and fifty members was secured within three weeks without any active campaigning. It is planned to make the new club with its fifteen courts, the locus of at least three important events next year and with J. H. Felt, president, John H. Thacher and J. D. Bowersock, vice-presidents, F. E. Wilhelm secretary and treasurer, D. K. Campbell, corresponding secretary and chairman of the tournament committee, and with Clifford J. Lockhorn, Missouri Valley champion, one of its leading players, it should soon take its place among the most active clubs of the middle West.

The foot-fault rule and its strict enforcement continued a bone of contention during 1915, but it is safe to say that the year brought a marked improvement all along the line in the careful observance of this regulation. Most of the leading players have at last adapted their play to compliance with the rule, and the influence of their example is beginning to be felt. During the National Championships the rule was stringently enforced, but in some of the less important events this was not true and there is still chance for further improvement. It is not, as some players seem to believe, a highly technical and unnecessary regulation, but a really necessary and beneficial one, and any breach of it constitutes as much a fault as a ball served out of court, and is, moreover, an "unfair" service.

The Rule

6. The server shall before commencing to serve stand with both feet at rest behind (i.e., further from the net than) the base-line and within the limits of the imaginary continuation of the half-court and sidelines, and thereafter the server shall not run, walk, hop or jump before the service has been delivered, but the server may raise one foot from (and, if desired, replace it on) the ground, provided that both feet are kept behind the base line until the service has been delivered.

Official Interpretation of law 6. If a foot be lifted and replaced, there must be no change of position that can possibly be considered a step.

Miss Marion Fenno, one of Boston's leading women stars, demonstrated her ability by winning the women's Single championship of the Bahama Islands, at Nassau on February 29, her opponent in the finals being Miss Helen Ostby of Providence, whom she defeated, 8-6, 4-6, 6-3.

Nashville, Tenn., mourns the loss of one of her leading tennis players and enthusiasts, Bob Smith of that city having fallen a victim to pneumonia early this year.

The U. S. N. L. T. A. is taking a great interest in the development of the younger players. A special committee has been appointed for that purpose and the work already done by that committee is most praiseworthy. Besides the regular Interscholastic tournaments, Junior and Boys' tournaments are being organized throughout the country and the results will be far reaching. Regulations for these tournaments will be found elsewhere in the GUIDE.

We are advised by the pioneers of Lawn Tennis that it is an outgrowth of Court Tennis. The game was first played on lawns in England on a court shaped like a sand glass, being 27 ft. between the posts, and for a distance of 9 ft. each side, then spread out until it was 36 ft. at the base lines. The net was 4 ft. 6 in. at the posts and 4 ft. in the center. The first Championship meeting was held at Wimbledon in 1877. Tennis was introduced in America by Dr. James Dwight and Arthur Hunnewell in 1876. The first National Championship was in 1881.

Eight championship trophies carrying with them the National Singles title have been in competition since the inception of the championship in 1881, the last of the series being still "at large." Tennis was introduced in America by Dr. James Dwight and Arthur Hunnewell in 1876.

R. D. Sears won the first and second without any name save his appearing upon them. The third, put into competition in 1887, was captured six years later by O. S. Campbell, Sears having won it once and H. W. Slocum twice before it was removed from competition. R. D. Wrenn annexed the fourth bowl,—competition therefore beginning in 1903—after F. H. Hovey had won it once. The fifth (1897) went to M. D. Whitman, R. D. Wrenn's name appearing upon it once. The next trophy was much fought over, H. L. Doherty, Holcombe Ward, Beals C.

Wright and W. J. Clothier each holding it for a year before Wm. A. Larned finally won it outright. The "Master Player" captured the next (1908–1910) by three consecutive wins. The eighth and present trophy was given in 1911 and Larned won it that year. Then the challenge round was abolished and playing through the tournament M. E. McLoughlin won it twice, R. N. Williams, 2nd, once, and Wm. M. Johnston once.

But four cups representing the National Singles title for women have been removed from competition. The first, which was presented in 1887, finally became the permanent possession of Miss Juliette Atkinson twelve years later. Seven years marked the life of the second trophy Miss Elisabeth Moore removing it from further competition by achieving her third win in 1905. Miss Hazel Hotchkiss, now Mrs. George W. Wightman, was the first Californian to win a trophy outright, taking the third of the series in 1911 after it had been fought over for six years. The fourth went to Miss Mary Browne as the result of three consecutive victories, and Miss Molla Bjurstedt last year won the first leg on the fifth trophy—known as the Wissahickon Cup, which was presented last Spring by the Philadelphia Cricket Club.

For the first time in twenty-nine years the famous Niagara-on-the-Lake tournament failed to be played. This was on account of conditions abroad, many of the Canadian players having volunteered their services.

We are in close touch at all times with the leading professionals and if we can be of any assistance to clubs in procuring their services, we will be glad to do so.

Any letters referring to questions on anything to do with Lawn Tennis will receive our personal attention. Such correspondence should be addressed to the Guide Department.

The 1915 tennis season at Merion was a marked success, the several tournaments held on the club's grounds keeping up closely to the standard of previous years, both in number of entries and the excellence of play in the matches.

The Merion Tennis Teams led all the Philadelphia clubs in their matches, the first team, Captain Rowland Evans, Jr., winning the First Division Inter-Club Tennis Cup, and the Second Team, Captain Henry D. Riley, winning the Second Division Inter-Club Cup.

On their way back from the Philippines, Clarence J. Griffin and Ward Dawson entered the Mid-Pacific Carnival Tournament in Honolulu. Dawson won the Singles and with Griffin captured the Doubles. This tournament is held annually, generally about the first of February, and beside the local stars, the draw generally has some of the "first string" from the United States and is always a most enjoyable event.

LAWN TENNIS BALLS

LAWN Tennis balls, although it is not realized by most tennis players, are most delicate and should be taken care of as carefully as the gut in one's racket. For instance, in a Championship ball the requirements are very precise, and it has to be manufactured most carefully to meet all requirements. The felt covering on a ball is very important. The wall or thickness of the rubber must be just so. If too thick, one will be unable to play the various shots correctly, especially the volley, and, if too thin, the ball can not be controlled properly, being too lively.

Heat and cold have more effect on a ball than almost anything. In cold weather the balls become heavy and soggy and need more hitting, while on a hot day they expand and one's stroke must be more sensitive, consequently on hot days the play is much faster.

Players as well as dealers should keep the balls in a dry place of even temperature, then they will hold their life longer and will not deteriorate and become soft.

It is a great mistake, and one that is often made, for players to leave the balls unboxed in a locker with damp clothing. It is only natural that balls wear out more quickly when used on dirt or cement courts, because the felt cover which cannot be made of a coarse material, wears out easily, thus causing the ball to become light and hard to control. This is most noticeable on windy day when lobbing or playing a long stroke from behind the base line. Balls used on grass hold their weight and are likely to become somewhat heavier. When practicing for big contests the leading players seldom use the balls in more than from three to four sets during an afternoon's practice.

HOW TO BUILD TENNIS COURTS

CLAY COURT

To really enjoy a game of tennis it is necessary, first of all, to have a good court and one which is laid out properly. It is most important that there should be plenty of room both at the sides and ends of the court. When possible, there should be 15 feet on each side and 21 feet at each end at least.

The court should be laid out so that it will run north and south and situated so that no shadows from buildings, trees, etc., shall interfere. Another important point is to have a good background at the ends so that the ball can be plainly seen in its flight. Unless the court is for club use or where it can be properly cared for, we strongly advise a dirt or clay court.

The cost and amount of work to build a dirt court depends entirely on the condition of the soil. If the latter is of sandy nature so that it will drain well and where no artificial drains are necessary, we suggest the following:—Take the earth out for about one foot in depth. This having been done and every care taken to make sure that it is level, 5 inches or 6 inches of broken stone, the kind used for macadamizing roads, should be spread in the excavation. Over this spread a fine mixture of stone and gravel. This should be soaked for three or four days and intermittingly rolled while wet and in this way it will gradually "work in." Naturally, depressions or holes will be found and these should be filled in as they appear. Care also should be taken to see that there is a gradual slope toward the middle from the end, the drop being about 1½ inches on each side, and then a small drain in the center between the posts to carry the water off after a rain. A topping of about 3 inches should be laid on the foundation described above consisting of a mixture of clay and sandy loam. The mixture depends entirely on the quality of the clay. Great care should be taken in this. The mixture should run from four parts of clay to one of sand if the soil is sticky. From eight to one of sand if the soil is sandy. This surface should be watched carefully and sand added if the surface proves to be sticky. When finished the court should not be played on for a week or two but should be watered or rolled at least twice a day until the surface is fairly firm.

If the court is in a location where it does not drain readily, artificial drainage must be resorted to. Pipes, "ordinary sewer pipes" cut in halves, should be laid immediately under the foundation and follow the grade of the court. Outside the court at a distance of 3 feet other pipes should be laid at the ends. All pipes should be filled with small stone so that they will be solid, yet drain well. After every rain the court should be carefully gone over. The pebbles which have worked out should be removed, indentations filled in and the surface rolled.

ASPHALT COURT

The area of the court should be 60 x 120 feet. The ground should be graded so as to have a pitch of at least 9 inches in 120 feet without any crown whatsoever (drainage).

The subgrade should be either rolled with a small steam roller weighing two and one-half ton, or with heavy hand roller. Upon your subgrade place 4 inches of concrete, or if you can obtain good bed rock macadam, 6 inches of that will serve instead. Upon this, spread one inch of asphalt wearing surface which should be made of the following proportions:—

Asphalt having a penetration of 70 to 90 degrees, 120 pounds; powdered limestone or cement, 150 pounds; fine sand possessing not over three per cent. loam, or mica, 745 pounds.

The above quantities constitute 9 cubic feet of finishing material covering an area of 100 sq. feet, and one inch thick. Particular pains should be taken in ironing and hand-rolling of the asphalt, so that there will be no roughness after the final rolling.

There should be two hand rollers used when the asphalt is spread, one weighing about 600 pounds, followed by a lighter one weighing close to 400 pounds.

The rakers should work to a three-quarter inch surfaced board in spreading the material. Should the subgrade be all loam or material that opens up and cracks, it would be good to spread about two inches of sand before the concrete, base or macadam is laid.

GRASS COURT

These can be made in three ways, namely: first, by improving an existing stretch of turf until it is level and smooth enough; second, by leveling the ground, preparing the soil, and sowing grass seeds; and third, by laying fresh turf. Of these, the former is of course the simplest; but as the requisite piece of grass land is rarely available particulars for preparing it are seldom required. In improving such a piece of turf care should be taken to remove all weeds or coarse grasses and to freely use the spirit-level. To raise hollow places the turf should be cut out, lifted and fine soil placed underneath until the proper height has been obtained, when the turf should be replaced and well beaten down with the flat side of a spade. On the other hand, small mounds should be removed by taking the soil away from under the grass, some fine mould being placed underneath the turf before it is replaced. To prepare a court for sowing seeds the same instructions may be followed as for making a turf-laid one, except that the seed will be sown instead of the turfs laid. Take care that the seed is good by purchasing from a first-class seedsman, and when ordering, it will be well to state what sort of soil is to be sown. By far the larger number of courts are made by laying fresh turfs.

When preparing the ground for a court, it is desired to level a portion measuring 100 x 50 feet, which allows an ample margin; but for the playing portion itself only 78 x 36 feet is necessary. If economy must be strictly considered, only the latter need be carefully prepared; but it is better to have the whole done if possible.

RESTRUNG RACKETS

All our stores do a very large business in restringing tennis rackets, each store having competent stringers who have had years of experience in this work. Rackets may be sent by express prepaid, ounce rates, or Parcel Post. When shipping, mark package plainly with name and address, and also mail letter of instructions.

No. 00	Special Selected Tournament Stringing	$3.50

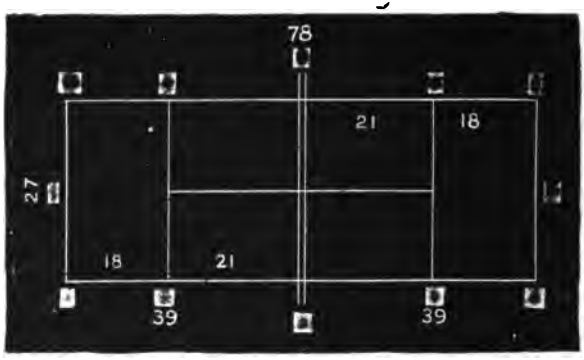
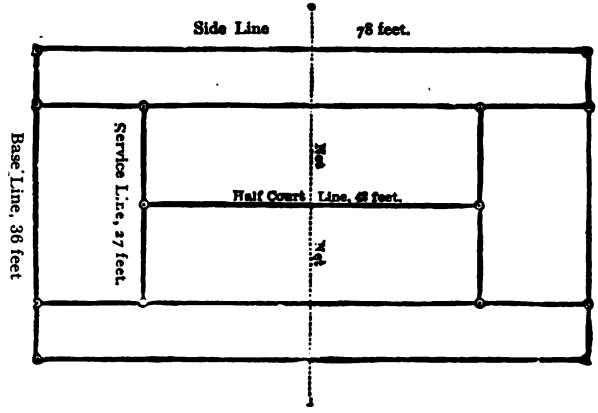
Customers who send Rackets to be Restrung must prepay the express charges.



SINGLE COURT



DOUBLE AND SINGLE COURT

Dimensions of Lawn Tennis Courts.—The above cuts give the dimensions of the single court, and the double and single court on which a single or double game can be played.

HOW TO MARK OUT A COURT

As a double court practically includes every line to be found in a single court, it is best to take first the measure for the latter. Having determined the position of your net, plant in the ground, in the line chosen, two pegs, 27 feet apart (at the points A and B in the diagram). Then take two measures and attach their respective ends to the pegs A and B. On the first which will measure the diagonal of the court, take a length of 47 feet 5 inches; on the other, 39 feet; pull both taut in such directions that at these distances they meet, in a point C. This will give one corner of the court. At that point, F 21 feet from B, put in a peg to mark the end of the service-line. The other corner, D, and the other end of the service-line G, may be found by interchanging the measures and repeating the process. The same measurements on the other side of the net will complete the exterior boundaries of the court. By prolonging the base-line 4 feet 6 inches in each direction, and joining the four new points thus obtained, we can made the side-lines of a double court. It only remains to mark the central line. This is done by joining the middle points of the service-lines. If a double court alone be required, the interior side-lines need not be prolonged to meet the base-lines. Remember that in all cases the net-posts must stand at a distance of three feet from the side-lines.

Section of a properly made Lawn Tennis Court

LAWS OF LAWN TENNIS

THE COURT

1. The Court is 78 feet long and 27 feet wide. It is divided across the middle by a net, the ends of which are attached to two posts, A and B, standing 3 feet outside of the court on either side. The height of the net is 3 feet 6 inches at the posts, and 3 feet in the middle. The binder or topping used as a band at the top of the net shall be not less than 2 inches nor more than 2½ inches in width, and shall not have any surplus material projecting below the sewing at the bottom of said band. At each end of the court, parallel with the net, and 39 feet from it, are drawn the base lines D E and F G, the ends of which are connected by the side lines D F and E G. Halfway between the side lines, and parallel with them, is drawn the half court line I H, dividing the space on each side of the net into two equal parts, the right and left courts. On each side of the net, at a distance of 21 feet from it, and parallel with it are drawn the service lines K L and M N.

THE BALLS

2. The Balls shall measure not less than 2½ inches, nor more than 2 9-16 inches in diameter; and shall weigh not less than 1 15-16 ounces, nor more than 2 ounces.

THE GAME

3. The choice of sides, and the right to serve in the first game, shall be decided by toss; provided, that, if the winner of the toss choose the right to serve, the other player shall have choice of sides, and vice versa, or the winner of the toss may insist upon a choice by his opponent. If one player choose the court, the other may elect not to serve.

4. The players shall stand on opposite sides of the net; the player who first delivers the ball shall be called the server, and the other the striker-out.

5. At the end of the first game the striker-out shall become server, and the server shall become striker-out; and so on alternately in all the subsequent games of the set and following sets.

FOOT FAULT RULE

6. Before commencing to serve, the server shall stand with both feet at rest behind (i.e., further from the net than) the base-line and within the limits of the imaginary continuation of the half-court and side-lines, and thereafter the server shall not run, walk, hop or jump before the service has been delivered, but the server may raise one foot from (and, if desired, replace it on) the ground, provided that both feet are kept behind the base line until the service has been delivered.

Official Interpretation of law 6. If a foot be lifted and replaced, there must be no change of position that can possibly be considered a step.

7. The service shall be delivered from the right and left courts alternately, beginning from the right in every game, even though odds be given or owed, and the ball served shall drop within the service-line, half court-line and side-line of the court which is diagonally opposite to that from which it was served or upon any such line.

8. It is a fault if the server commit any breach of rule 7, or if he does not stand as directed in rule 6, or if the ball served drop in the net, or beyond the service line, or if it drop out of court or in the wrong court. If the server in attempting to serve miss the ball altogether, it does not count as a fault; but if the ball be touched, no matter how slightly, by the racket, a service is thereby delivered, and the laws governing the service at once apply.

9. A fault cannot be taken.

10. After a fault the server shall serve again from the same court from which he served that fault, unless it was a fault because he served from the wrong court.

11. A fault cannot be claimed after the next service is delivered.

12. The server shall not serve till the striker-out is ready. If the latter attempt to return the service, he shall be deemed ready.

13. A service or fault delivered when the striker-out is not ready counts for nothing.

14. The service shall not be volleyed, that is, taken, before it has touched the ground.

15. A ball is in play on leaving the server's racket, except as provided for in law 8, and remains in play till the stroke is decided.

16. It is a good return, although the ball touch the net; but a service, otherwise good, which touches the net shall count for nothing.

17. The server wins a stroke if the striker-out volley the service, or if he fail to return the service or the ball in play; or if he return the service or the ball in play so that it drops outside of his opponent's court; or if he otherwise lose a stroke, as provided by law 20.

18. The striker-out wins a stroke if the server serve two consecutive faults; or if he fail to return the ball in play; or if he return the ball in play so that it drops outside of his opponent's court, or if he otherwise lose a stroke as provided by law 20.

19. A ball falling on a line is regarded as falling in the court bounded by that line.

20. Either player loses a stroke if the ball touch him, or anything that he wears or carries, except his racket in the act of striking; or if he touch the ball with his racket more than once; or if he touch the net or any of its supports, or the ground within his opponent's court, while the ball is in play; or if he volley the ball before it has passed the net.

21. In case a player is obstructed by any accident, not within his control, the ball shall be considered a "let." But when a permanent fixture of the court is the cause of the accident, the point shall be counted. The benches and chairs placed around the court shall be considered permanent fixtures. If, however, a ball in play strike a permanent fixture of the court (other than the net or posts) before it touches the ground, the point is lost; if after it has touched the ground, the point shall be counted.

22. On either player winning his first stroke, the score is called 15 for that player; on either player winning his second stroke, the score is called 30 for that player; on either player winning his third stroke, the score is called 40 for that player; and the fourth stroke won by either player is scored game for that player, except as follows: If both players have won three strokes, the score is called deuce; and the next stroke won by either player is scored advantage for that player. If the same player win the next stroke, he wins the game; if he lose the next stroke the score returns to deuce, and so on until one player wins the two strokes immediately following the score of deuce, when game is scored for that player.

23. The player who first wins six games wins the set, except as follows: If both players win five games the score is called games all; and the next game won by either player is scored advantage game for that player. If the same player win the next game, he wins the set; if he lose the next game, the score returns to games all; and so on, until either player wins the two games immediately following the score of games all, when he wins the set. But the committee having charge of any tournament may in their discretion modify this rule by the omission of advantage sets.

24. The players shall change sides at the end of the first, third and every subsequent alternate game of each set and at the end of each set, unless the number of games in such set be even. It shall, however, be open to the players by mutual consent and notification to the umpire before the opening of the second game of the match to change sides instead at the end of every set until the odd and concluding set, in which they shall change sides at the end of the first, third and every subsequent alternate game of such set.

*25. In all contests the play shall be continuous from the first service till the match be concluded; provided, however, that at the end of the third set either player is entitled to a rest, which shall not exceed seven minutes; and provided, further, that in case of an unavoidable accident, not within the control of the contestants, a cessation of play which shall not exceed two minutes may be allowed between points; but this proviso shall be strictly construed, and the privilege never granted for the purpose of allowing a player to recover his strength or wind. The referee in his discretion may at any time postpone the match on account of darkness or condition of the ground or weather. In any case of postponement, the previous score shall hold good. Where the play has ceased for more than an hour, the player who at the cessation thereof was in the court first chosen shall have the choice of courts on the recommencement of play. He shall stay in the court he chooses for the remainder of the set. The last two sentences of this rule do not apply when the players change every alternate game as provided by law 24.

26. If a player serve out of his turn, the umpire, as soon as the mistake is discovered shall direct the player to serve who ought to have served. But all strokes scored before such discovery shall be counted. If a game shall have been completed before such discovery, then the service in the next alternate game shall be delivered by the player who did not serve out of his turn, and so on in regular rotation.

27. The above laws shall apply to the three-handed and four-handed games, except as follows:—

28. For the three-handed and four-handed games the court shall be 36 feet in width; 4½ feet inside the side lines, and parallel with them, are drawn the service side lines K M and L N. The service lines are not drawn beyond the point at which they meet the service side lines, as shown in the diagram opposite.

29. In the three-handed game, the single player shall serve in every alternate game.

* All matches in which women take part in tournaments held under the auspices of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association shall be the best two in three sets, with a rest not exceeding seven minutes after the second set.

30. In the four-handed game, the pair who have the right to serve in the first game shall decide which partner shall do so; and the opposing pair shall decide in like manner for the second game. The partner of the player who served in the first game shall serve in the third, and the partner of the player who served in the second game shall serve in the fourth, and the same order shall be maintained in all the subsequent games of the set.

31. At the beginning of the next set, either partner of the pair which struck out in the last game of the last set may serve; and the same privilege is given to their opponents in second game of the new set.

32. The players shall take the service alternately throughout the game; a player cannot receive a service delivered to his partner; and the order of service and striking out once established shall not be altered, nor shall the striker-out change courts to receive the service, till the end of the set.

33. It is a fault if the ball served do not drop between the service line, half-court line, and service side line of the court, diagonally opposite to that from which it was served.

34. It is a fault if the ball served do not drop as provided in law 33, or if it touch the server's partner or anything he wears or carries.

FOOT-FAULT RULE

Every effort to bring about the careful observance of this rule during the coming playing season will be used by the Executive Committee, who will welcome the co-operation of all Club officers in connection with tournaments held under the sanction of the National Body. If every Club holding an authorized tournament will make a special effort to secure for their tournament a "Foot-fault Committee" and will have such committee carefully study and post themselves as to just what constitutes a foot-fault and then rigidly enforce such rule, material good will be accomplished in connection with the legitimate interests of the game.

The Executive Committee especially requests that all Clubs giving tournaments with the sanction of the U. S. N. L. T. A. include in their printed notices direct information "THAT THE FOOT-FAULT RULE MUST BE OBSERVED" and copy such rule verbatim as part of their tournament announcement.

Edwin Fuller Torrey,

Secretary.

The Constitution

OF THE

United States National Lawn Tennis Association

ARTICLE I

NAME

This organization shall be known as the "United States National Lawn Tennis Association," hereinafter referred to as the National Association.

ARTICLE II

MEMBERS

SECTION 1. The membership shall consist of the following classes:

(1) Clubs
(2) Active Associations
(3) Allied Associations

Allied associations shall consist of associations of schools or colleges, but such associations, if they so desire, may become active associations by notifying the Secretary of the National Association and paying the dues for an active association. Active associations shall consist of all associations other than allied associations and in each case the limits of an active association shall necessarily exclude to that extent the limits of every other such association.

SEC. 2. An association either (2) or (3) shall consist of five or more individual clubs, any one of which may or may not be itself a member directly of the National Association. Each club shall at all meetings be entitled to one vote. Each active association shall be entitled to two votes and to one additional vote for every five clubs or fraction thereof members of it over ten. Allied associations shall not be entitled to any vote. No club being itself a member of the National Association shall be counted as a member of an active association in determining the number of votes which may be cast by such association.

SEC. 3. On or before the first day of January in every year each sub-association shall send to the Secretary of the National Association the names and addresses of its secretary and treasurer and a list of clubs belonging to it on December 1st preceding, and each club directly a member of the National Association shall send to the Secretary of the National Association the names and addresses of its secretary and treasurer, holding office on December 1st preceding. The secretary of each association shall notify the Secretary of the National Association of any changes in its membership immediately upon their occurrence.

ARTICLE III

ELECTION OF MEMBERS

SEC. 1. Proposals for membership must be made in writing to the Executive Committee, hereinafter provided for, with the name and address of the applicant, and signed by the proper officer of the club or association making the proposal, and shall give such information with regard to membership, grounds, etc., as shall be required by the Executive Committee. Where the applicant is an association, the names and addresses of each of its members shall be given with the application, together with a statement of the limits that it desires to represent.

SEC. 2. The Executive Committee shall have full power to elect candidates for membership, except that no association shall be deemed a member whose limits shall conflict with those of any other association until its election be confirmed by a two-thirds' vote at the annual meeting of the National Association, or the associations upon whose limits it encroaches consent to such encroachment. The election to membership of such an association automatically decreases the limits of other associations to such an extent as shall preclude a conflict of limits.

SEC. 3. Dues, etc.—The annual dues to the National Association, in the case of clubs, shall be ten dollars ($10) and in the case of active associations shall be thirty-five dollars ($35), except that where any such association is composed of more than ten clubs its annual dues shall in addition be fifteen dollars ($15) for every five clubs or fraction thereof above ten. Allied associations shall not be required to pay any annual dues. No clubs or association shall be allowed the privilege of a member until after its first annual dues have been paid and no club shall be entitled to a vote at the annual meeting of the National Association unless it was a member thereof for the preceding fiscal year. The fiscal year of the National Association shall begin February 1st. All dues for the ensuing year are payable on or before May 1st.

SEC. 4. Limits of Payments, etc.—Any club or association which shall fail to have paid its annual dues on or before June 1st may be debarred from the privileges of a member by the Executive Committee until the same are paid, and, at their discretion, may be dropped from the roll.

ARTICLE IV

RESIGNATIONS, EXPULSIONS, ETC.

SEC. 1. Resignations, etc.—Any member wishing to resign must do so in writing, addressed to the Secretary; and the resignation cannot be accepted until all dues for the current fiscal year are paid. Resignations must be received before February 1st to relieve the member from payment of dues for the ensuing year.

SEC. 2. The Executive Committee of the National Association hereinafter provided for, shall have the power to suspend or expel any member which may neglect or refuse a strict and honorable compliance with its constitution, By-Laws, etc., or which shall, by its conduct, bring reproach or disgrace upon the National Association; or which shall, being itself an association, retain as one of its members any club objected to by notice in writing by the Executive Committee, subject to the right of any member, if expelled, to appeal to the National Association, at its next annual meeting, for reinstatement.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

SEC. 1. The affairs of the National Association shall be conducted by an Executive Committee composed of the President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer and sixteen other members, ten of whom shall represent stated sections of the country as provided in Section 2 of this article, and shall be called Sectional Delegates. The remaining six shall be called Delegates-at-large.

SEC. 2. The stated sections of the country hereinbefore referred to shall be as follows:

New England, comprising the states of Connecticut

Maine
Massachusetts
New Hampshire
Rhode Island
Vermont

Middle States, comprising the states of

New Jersey
New York
Pennsylvania

Middle Atlantic, comprising the states of

Delaware
Maryland
Virginia
West Virginia
and the District of Columbia

Tri-State, comprising the states of Indiana

Kentucky
Ohio

Southern, comprising the states of Alabama

Florida
Georgia
Louisiana
Mississippi
North Carolina
South Carolina
Tennessee

Western, comprising the states of

Illinois
Iowa
Kansas
Michigan
Missouri
Nebraska
Wisconsin

North Western, comprising the states of Minnesota

Montana
North Dakota
South Dakota

South Western, comprising the states of Arizona

Arkansas
New Mexico
Oklahoma
Texas

Inter-Mountain, comprising the states of Colorado

Idaho
Nevada
Utah
Wyoming

Pacific States, comprising the states of California

Oregon
Washington

SEC. 3. The President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer shall be elected at the annual meeting of the National Association in each year and shall serve until their respective successors are elected. The Sectional Delegates shall be appointed by the active associations of the sections which they respectively represent and shall serve for two years. If a section is not represented by an active association its delegate shall be elected by the National Association at its annual meeting. Each Sectional Delegate must live in the section which he represents. On his removal outside the bounds of such section his place shall become vacant. Sectional Delegates appointed by active associations must present their certificates of appointment to the Secretary of the National Association at or before the annual meeting.

SEC. 4. At the next meeting of the Executive Committee after the annual meeting of 1913, the Sectional Delegates shall be divided by lot into two classes, five to serve for two years and five for one year, and as the term of each delegate expires his association shall appoint, or the National Association shall elect, his successor. The Delegates-at-large shall serve for two years and shall be elected three each year at the annual meeting of the National Association. The election of officers and delegates shall be by ballot and a majority vote shall be required to elect. Any vacancy among the officers or members of the Executive Committee may be filled by the Executive Committee. Such appointee shall hold office only until the next annual meeting, when a successor shall be elected or appointed as provided in Section 3.

SEC. 5. The President—It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings of the Executive Committee and of the National Association; to preserve order, to appoint all committees not otherwise provided for, and to see that the officers and committees perform their respective duties.

SEC. 6. The Vice-President—The Vice-President shall assist the President in the performance of his duties, and shall exercise all the powers of the President in his absence.

SEC. 7. The Secretary.—The Secretary shall keep a roll of all the members, and from time to time amend and correct the same as circumstances require. He shall notify new members of their election within two weeks thereafter, and shall give notice of all meetings of the Executive Committee at least two weeks in advance. He shall conduct all the correspondence of the National Association, and keep copies of all letters in a book provided for that purpose. He shall keep the minutes of the proceedings of the National Association and Executive Committee and a record of such matters of interest as may occur, and may employ such clerical assistance as may be authorized by the Executive Committee.

SEC. 8. The Treasurer.—The Treasurer shall keep, in a suitable book provided for that purpose, an account of all moneys received and paid. He shall liquidate all properly authorized bills against the National Association, and shall report in writing the state of the finances when required by the Executive Committee; and, at the annual meeting, he shall present a written report showing all the receipts and expenditures for the year. His account shall be audited by an Audit Company at least once annually, and he may employ such clerical assistance as may be authorized by the Executive Committee.

SEC. 9. The Executive Committee, etc.—It shall be the duty of the Executive Committee to see that the general provisions of the Constitution and By-laws of the National Association are complied with by members of the same; to hear and decide all questions submitted by members for decision, at least one week's notice of hearing being given to any other member who may be affected by the question; to construe and enforce all the rules of the National Association. All decisions of the Executive Committee shall be complied with forthwith; but an appeal therefrom may be taken by any member to the National Association at its next annual meeting. The Executive Committee and the Secretary shall cause official notices, and such other matters of information as they shall deem of interest, to be published in a paper which may be appointed annually by the Executive Committee as the official bulletin of the National Association. All members are to be given notice of said appointment, and thereafter are expected to take notice of official publications therein. The Executive Committee shall have the supervision over all tournaments conducted under the auspices of the National Association, and may assume the conduct of such tournaments as it shall deem advisable. It shall have general charge of the funds of the National Association and shall control all expenditures. It may charge off all bills owing to the National Association which it shall deem uncollectible.

Each member of the Executive Committee must be a member of a club belonging either directly to the National Association, or indirectly as specified in Art. II, Sec. 2. Seven members, including officers, shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Executive Committee.

SEC. 10. Sectional Delegates.—In addition to their other duties as members of the Executive Committee it shall be the duty of Sectional Delegates to carefully observe conditions relating to the game in the sections which they respectively represent and to report thereon to the officers of the National Asociation and the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VI

MEETINGS

SEC. 1. There shall be a stated annual meeting of the National Association held, on a date to be fixed by the President, between the 1st and 15th of February, in each year, at a place to be designated at the previous annual meeting, or, in the absence of such designation, by the President. At least thirty and not more than sixty days before such meeting a written notice thereof shall be mailed to each member of the National Association by the Secretary.

SEC. 2. A special meeting of the National Association may be called by the Executive Committee at any time, and shall be so called upon the written request of at least fifteen members thereof. At least twenty days before such meeting a written notice thereof shall be mailed to each member of the National Association by the Secretary, stating the object of the meeting. Only those matters specified in such notice shall be considered at the meeting.

SEC. 3. At all meetings of the National Association the representatives of twenty-five members shall constitute a quorum.

SEC. 4. At all meetings members may be represented by a delegate belonging to such member, if a club, or to a club belonging to such member of an association, or by proxy. Each person holding a proxy must be a member of some club belonging to the National Association, or to an association which belongs to the National Association. Each delegate or proxy must present at the meeting written credentials from the member he represents signed and attested by at least two officers, one of whom may be chairman of the committee in charge of tennis affairs.

ARTICLE VII

AMENDMENTS, ETC.

Amendments to this Constitution may be made at any annual meeting by a vote of at least two-thirds of all the votes cast, provided that at least thirty days before such meeting a notice of the proposed amendment be sent to each club or association in the National Association. By-laws may be amended at any annual or special meeting under the same provisions.

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I

ORDER OF BUSINESS, ETC.

SECTION 1. The order of business for this Association shall be as follows:—

1. Roll Call.
2. Reading of Minutes.
3. Secretary's Report.
4. Treasurer's Report.
5. Reports of Committees.
6. Elections.
7. Miscellaneous Business.
8. Adjournment.

SEC. 2. Authority for Rules of Order.—For the "Rules of Order," and any and all parliamentary rules not herein mentioned, those laid down in "Cushing's Manual" shall be authority.

ARTICLE II

SEC. 1. All clubs represented in this Association shall be governed by the laws of Lawn Tennis as laid down by this Association.

SEC. 2. Laws of Matches, etc.—All matches played by clubs represented in this Association shall be played under all the rules adopted by it.

SEC. 3. None but amateurs shall be allowed to enter for any match or matches played under the auspices of this Association.

SEC. 4. An amateur is one who

1. Has never entered a competition open only to professionals nor played for a money prize, public or admission money, or entrance fee.
2. Has not played, instructed, pursued or assisted in the pursuit of tennis or other athletic exercise as a means of livelihood or for gain or any emolument.

3. Did not obtain and does not retain membership in any tennis or athletic club of any kind because of any mutual understanding, express or implied, whereby such membership would be of any pecuniary benefit to the member or the club.

4. Is not connected with the sale of tennis goods, nor with a firm manufacturing or selling tennis goods, except when such connection shall be of a general nature in a firm manufacturing or selling general athletic goods and the person so connected has to do with tennis goods to no greater extent than with any other line of goods.

5. Has never sold, pledged or otherwise converted into money any prize won in a tennis tournament, or converted any prize so won into any article or articles, commonly known as necessities, such as food, ordinary clothing, etc., or accepted as a prize any such article.

6. After doing or committing any of the foregoing acts has been reinstated as an amateur by the Executive Committee of the U. S. N. L. T. A.

The Executive Committee of the U. S. N. L. T. A. shall be the tribunal to decide whether a player is a professional or an amateur.

Note: Any infraction of the above rules previous to February 14th, 1913, shall not constitute a player a professional unless such action would also have been an infraction of the laws in force prior to that date.

SEC. 5. No player shall be allowed to enter for any match given by this Association unless he is a member of a club belonging either directly to this Association, or indirectly as specified in Article II, Section 2, of the Constitution, or has played in an interscholastic tournament of the same year. But the Executive Committee is empowered, at its discretion, to permit, for special cause, any foreigners or other players to enter for any match given under the auspices of this Association.

ARTICLE III

SUSPENSION OF BY-LAWS

Any article or section of these By-laws may be suspended for any one meeting by a two-thirds vote of all cast.

10. The Lawn Tennis Association or Corresponding Organization of each of the Nations concerned shall appoint a Captain of its Side. In default of such appointment a Side shall choose its own Captain.

11. For each Tie a Referee, from whose decision there shall be no appeal, shall be appointed by common consent of the Captains of the competing Sides. He shall have power to appoint Umpires. He shall decide any point of law which an Umpire may profess himself unable to decide, or which may be referred to him on appeal from the decision of an Umpire by the players. He shall decide, if he be called upon to decide by the Captain of either Side, whether or not a Match or Matches shall be stopped owing to the state of the courts, the state of the weather, darkness, or other unavoidable hindrance.

12. (a) Each competing Nation shall, twenty-one days before the date fixed for the commencement of a Tie, nominate to the Committee of Management not more than four players, without specifying who shall play in Singles and Doubles. Different players, however, may be nominated by a Nation for different Ties.

(b) Each Captain shall, twenty-four hours before the time fixed for the commencement of play in each Contest, give notice of the composition of his Team to the Executive Committee, and his Team shall be selected from the four players previously nominated for the Tie. Such selection by the Captain, however, shall be regarded as solely for the convenience of the Executive Committee, and may be varied by him before the commencement of play.

(c) For the Second Round of the Singles Contest in any Tie, the Referee may sanction the substitution of another of the players nominated by a Nation for that Tie in the place of any player, who, in the opinion of the Referee, is incapacitated by illness, accident, or other unavoidable hindrance; provided that such substitute shall not be the player who has already competed in the Singles Contest.

13. The time of cessation of play shall be fixed before the commencement of each day's play by the Captains of the opposing Sides, or by the Referee if they shall disagree. It shall be the duty of the Referee to stop play when this time arrives; provided, nevertheless, that he may extend the time with the consent of the Captains of the opposing Sides. A player shall not be called upon to play more than one Match a day, except with the unaminous consent of the Captains of the opposing Sides and the majority of the Executive Committee.

14. Each Tie shall be decided by the combined results of Singles and Doubles, and the Side which shall win the majority of Matches shall be the winner of a Tie.

15. In the Singles, each Team shall, subject to Regulation 12, Clause c, consist of two players, who shall play each against each of the opposing Team the best of five advantage sets. The order of play and courts shall be decided by lot. In the Doubles, each Team shall consist of two players, who shall play against the opposing Team the best of five advantage sets.

16. Unless otherwise arranged by the unanimous consent of the Captains of the opposing Sides and the majority of the Executive Committee, the Doubles shall take place between the two rounds of the Singles Contest. If, however, a player be chosen for both the Singles and Doubles Contests, and if, by a change in the above arrangements, he be called upon to play his two Singles Matches on consecutive days, then there shall be an interval of one day between the second and the third days' play. Provided, nevertheless, that if there be an interval between the first and second days' play, either from postponement, arrangement, or the interval of a Sunday, there shall not be an interval between the second and third days' play.

17. If any player be absent when called upon to play by the Referee, the opposing Side shall be entitled to three love sets.

18. Any Competing Nation whose Lawn Tennis Association or Corresponding Organization, or whose Representatives shall fail to conform to the above Regulations, may be disqualified by the Committee of Management in respect of the Competition for the year wherein such failure shall occur.

19. Winners of a preliminary Tie shall notify the result without delay to the Committee of Management. by telegram, which shall be confirmed by letter.

20. For purposes of correspondence and the giving of notices required by these Regulations, the Secretary for the time being of the Lawn Tennis Association or Corresponding Organization of the Champion Nation shall be regarded as representing the Committee of Management.

21. The above Regulations shall be binding upon the Nations concerned, and shall not be altered except with the consent of two-thirds of the Associations or Corresponding Organizations whose Nations shall have from time to time competed and who shall record their votes.

NOTE: In the above Regulations, one Nation playing against another is regarded as a "Tie"; Singles and Doubles are regarded as separate "Contests;" and the best of five advantage sets is regarded as a "Match." The players in Singles and Doubles are regarded as separate "Teams;" and the players in the combined Contests as a "Side."

UNITED STATES
NATIONAL LAWN TENNIS ASSOCIATION

January 12, 1916.

Messrs. Wright & Ditson,
Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the U. S. N. L. T. A. held at the Waldorf, December 3rd, 1915, a resolution was passed establishing an official width for the canvas band used on the top of Tennis nets and it is required in the future in order to meet this official measurement that such bands shall measure not less than two inches (2") or more than two and a half inches (2½") in width, and bands shall be sewed closely to the net without any additional surplus to remain loose on top of the net. This includes the insertion of the rope, wire or cord at the top.

Kindly take notice officially of this action of the U. S. N. L. T. A. and be governed accordingly.

By order of the Executive Committee of the U. S. N. L. T. A.

Edwin Fuller Torrey,
Secretary.

REGULATIONS

MANAGEMENT

LAWN-TENNIS TOURNAMENTS.

1.—At Tournaments held by Clubs belonging to the United States National Lawn Tennis Association or by Clubs belonging to Associations which belong to the National Association or by Associations belonging to said National Association, the Laws of Lawn-Tennis as adopted for the time being by said National Association and the Regulations hereinafter contained shall be observed.

2.—The Officers of the Club holding the Tournament shall have full power over all details concerning said Tournament, but shall be entitled to delegate their power to a Committee. In case no special Committee shall be appointed by the Officers of the Club holding the Tournament, the powers and functions hereinafter delegated to the Committee shall be vested in and performed by the Officers of said Club.

3.—A circular shall be issued by the Committee specifying the conditions of the competition, and including names of Tournament Committee and of the Referee.

4.—No cheques, orders for money or cash payments in any form shall be given as prizes, and the amount actually paid for each prize shall in no case be below the advertised value of the same, if included in circular. If any challenge cup is offered it shall be deeded to the National Lawn Tennis Association. (See form of deed of gift on following page.) The winner of a Challenge Cup shall be entitled to the possession of the cup until one month previous to the next competition for the cup, possession being conditional on the giving of a bond by the winner satisfactory to the Club. Should the Club give possession without such bond, it shall be liable to the National Association for the value of the cup.

5.—The Committee shall elect a Referee, with power to appoint a substitute to be approved by them. The Referee or his duly appointed substitute must be present at all times when play is in progress.

6.—The Referee or such other member or members of the Committee as may be selected for the purpose, shall have power to appoint Umpires and Linesmen, to assign courts and to start matches, and the Referee shall decide any point of law which an Umpire may profess himself unable to decide, or which may be referred to him on appeal from the decision of an Umpire, and such decision shall be final.

7.—The Referee shall, during the Tournament, be ex-officio a member of the Committee.

8.—The Committee shall help to keep order on the ground, and shall consult and decide upon any question arising out of the competition, if summoned for that purpose by the Referee or by any two of their number; and they shall have power, when so convened, the misconduct of a Competitor having been reported to them by a member of the Committee or an Umpire, to disqualify the offender, and further to order him off the ground, should his misconduct appear to them to justify such action, but before such action shall be taken, an opportunity of offering an explanation shall be afforded to the competitor, whose misconduct has been reported to them. When the whole of the Committee of a Club, or even a quorum thereof, may not be available, the members of the Committee that are available shall have power to act in cases left to the Committee of the Club.

"DEED OF GIFT" FORM FOR CHALLENGE CUPS

Know All Men by These Presents:

THAT.....hereby presents to the United States National Lawn Tennis Association the cup tendered herewith, to be called and known as.....and to represent..... to be held under the auspices of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, according to such Rules and Regulations as may be, from time to time, prescribed by said Association. The winner of the said championship shall be entitled to the possession of the cup for the period during which he holds the championship, being responsible, however, for the production of the cup at the next championship contest. This cup shall become the property of the player who shall win said championship at .....annual championship contests.....

If for any reason no contest for said championship should be held for a period of two years, the United States National Lawn Tennis Association shall have the right to dispose of said cup as shall seem proper.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF,

9.—It is the duty of an Umpire—

(a) To ascertain that the net is at the right height before the commencement of play and to measure and adjust the net during play, if asked to do so, or if, in his opinion, its height has altered.

(b) To call the faults (subject to Regulation 10) and lets unless he delegates such power.

(c) To call the strokes when won, or when he is asked to call them, and to record them upon the Umpire's scoring sheet.

(d) To call the games and the sets at the end of each, or when asked to call them, and to record them on the Umpire's scoring sheet.

---

* Example:

The strokes are scored by means of pencil marks in the spaces beneath the word "STROKES," thus:

Game.	Initials of Players.	STROKES.																				Game won by
1	A. B.	1	1		1		1
	C. D.			1		1
2	C. D.		1		1	1		1			1	1	1
	A. B.	1		1			1		1	1

The Scoring Sheet shows that in the first game the score ran, and would have been called, thus:—"15—love, 30—love, 30—15, 40—15, 40—30, game (A.B.)" In the second game: "Love—15, 15 all, 15—30, 30 all, 40—30, deuce, advantage (C.D.), deuce, advantage (A.B.), deuce, advantage (C.D.), game (C.D.)."

The score of the Server should be called first.

NOTE—At the end of each game the games should be called with the name of the player who is in advance, thus: "2 games to 1, B wins," or "B leads." If the games are level the score should be called thus, "three games all," or as the case may be. At the end of each set the sets should be called in like manner.

(e) To direct the Competitors to change sides, in accordance with Law 24.

(f) When appealed to during a rally, whether a doubtful ball is "in play" or not, to call "play," and at the conclusion of the rally to give his decision (subject to Regulation 11) or direct the Competitors to play the stroke again.

(g) To decide all doubtful or disputed strokes, and all points of law (subject to Regulations 10 and 11), and to be responsible for the proper conduct of the match.

In scoring handicap matches, the odds received should be marked by crosses on the right of the first perpendicular thick line before the commencement of each game, thus:

Game.	Initials of Players.	Strokes.	Game won by
1	A. B.	+
	C. D.
2	C. D.
	A. B.	+ +
3	A. B.	+
	C. D.
4	C. D.
	A. B.	+ +
5	A. B.	+
	C. D.
6	C. D.
	A. B.	+ +

Here A. B. is receiving 15 and 3-sixths of 15.

(h) In handicap matches to call the odds at the commencement of each set.

(i) To sign the Umpire's scoring sheets, and to deliver them at the conclusion of the match to such person as the Committee may authorize to receive them.

Provided, that no omission of any of the foregoing duties on the part of an Umpire shall of itself invalidate any stroke, game or match.

10.—It is the duty of the Linesman to call faults and to decide strokes relating to the line or lines to which he is assigned and to said line or lines only, and such decision shall be final. Should the Linesman be unable to give a decision, the Umpire shall decide or shall direct the stroke to be played again.

When odds are owed, they should be marked on the left of the first thick perpendicular line before the commencement of each game, thus:

Game.	Initials of Players.	Strokes.																				Game won by
1	A. B.	1	1
	C. D.
2	C. D.
	A. B.		1
3	A. B.	1	1
	C. D.
4	C. D.
	A. B.		1
5	A. B.		1
	C. D.
6	C. D.
	A. B.		1

11. The decision of an Umpire shall be final upon every question of fact, and no competitor may appeal from it; but if an Umpire be in doubt as to a point of law, or if a competitor appeal against his decision on such a point, the Umpire shall submit it to the Referee, whose decision shall be final.

NOTE—A question of fact relates to events that actually happened. A question of law is the construction and application of the laws of the game to the admitted facts.

12. The Referee shall not bet on a match nor shall an Umpire or Linesman on the match to which he is assigned. An infraction of this rule shall be followed by the immediate removal of the offending Referee, Umpire or Linesman on the complaint of any competitor.

13. No Competitor may transfer his entry to another player.

And should be crossed off one by one when the player owing wins a stroke, thus:

Game.	Initials of Players.	STROKES.	Game won by
1	A. B.	+ +
	C. D.
2	C. D.
	A. B.	+
3	A. B.	+ +
	C. D.
4	C. D.
	A. B.	+
5	A. B.	+
	C. D.
6	C. D.
	A. B.	+

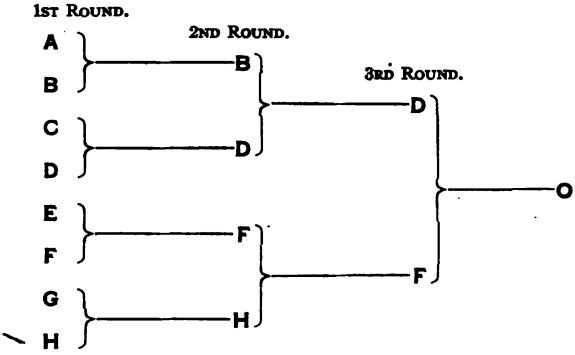
Here A. B. owes 15 and 2-sixths of 15.

14.—Competitors shall have a right, by themselves or their deputies, to be present at the draw.

15.—The draw shall be conducted in the following manner: Each Competitor's name shall be written on a separate card or paper, and these shall be placed in a bowl or hat, drawn out one by one at random, and copied on a list in the order in which they have been drawn.

Infraction of this rule renders a Club or other organization liable to loss of its tournament for the following year; except that in invitation tournaments, and competitions between nations, states, cities, clubs and similar bodies where the competition is really between such bodies and not between the players as individuals, players may be placed in such manner as agreed upon by the management of the competition, and except that in Intercollegiate and Interscholastic matches the draw shall be arranged to prevent members of the same college or school from meeting each other in the first and second rounds, the draw in other ways being arranged absolutely by chance.

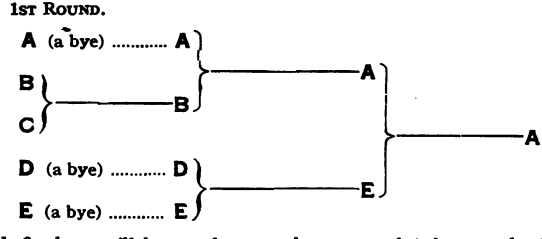
16.—When the number of Competitors is 4, 8, 16, 32, 64, or any higher power of 2, they shall meet in pairs, in accordance with the system shown by the following diagram:



17.—When the number of Competitors is not a power of 2 there shall be byes in the first round. The number of byes shall be equal to the difference between the number of Competitors and the next higher power of 2, and the number of pairs that shall meet in the first round shall be equal to the difference between the number of Competitors and the next lower power of 2. The byes, if even in number, shall be divided, as the names are drawn, in equal proportions at the top and bottom of the list above and below the pairs. If uneven in number there shall be one more bye at the bottom than at the top. Thus—

SERIES 1.

From 5 to 8 Competitors.

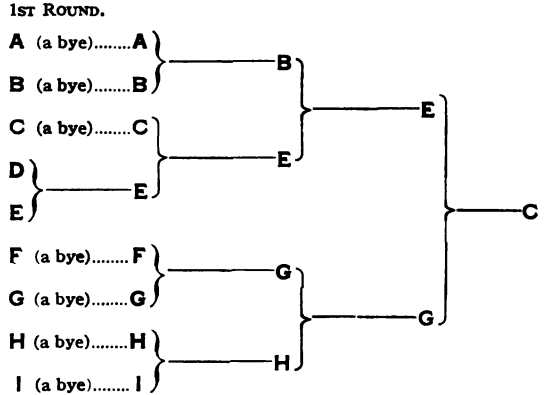


With 6, there will be one bye at the top, and 1 bye at the bottom. With 7, 1 bye at the bottom. With 8, no byes.

SERIES 2.

From 9 to 16 Competitors

With 9, 3 byes at the top, and 4 byes at the bottom.



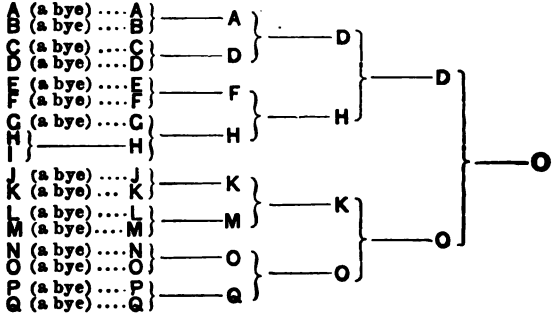
With 10, 3 byes at the top, and 3 at the bottom.
With 11, 2 byes at the top, and 3 at the bottom.
With 12, 2 byes at the top, and 2 at the bottom.
With 13, 1 bye at the top, and 2 at the bottom.
With 14, 1 bye at the top, and 1 at the bottom.
With 15, 1 bye at the bottom.
With 16, no byes.

SERIES 3

From 17 to 32 Competitors.

With 17, 7 byes at the top and 8 byes at the bottom.

1ST ROUND, 2ND ROUND, 3RD ROUND, 4TH ROUND, 5TH ROUND.



With 18, 7 byes at the top, and 7 byes at the bottom.
With 19, 6 byes at the top, and 7 byes at the bottom.
With 20, 6 byes at the top, and 6 byes at the bottom.
With 21, 5 byes at the top and 6 byes at the bottom.
With 22, 5 byes at the top, and 5 byes at the bottom.
With 23, 4 byes at the top, and 5 byes at the bottom.
With 24, 4 byes at the top, and 4 byes at the bottom.
With 25, 3 byes at the top, and 4 byes at the bottom.
With 26, 3 byes at the top, and 3 byes at the bottom.
With 27, 2 byes at the top, and 3 byes at the bottom.
With 28, 2 byes at the top, and 2 byes at the bottom.
With 29, 1 bye at the top, and 2 byes at the bottom.
With 30, 1 bye at the top, and 1 bye at the bottom.
With 31, 1 bye at the bottom.
With 32, no byes.
And so on with larger numbers in the same manner.

18.—If a Competitor be absent when called upon to play, or shall refuse to play, or shall have given previous notice to the Referee or to a member of the Committee that he cannot play in the next round, his adversary shall win in that round, unless said Competitor shall have been formally excused for a definite period by the Referee.

19.—In handicap matches the competitors shall be handicapped by the Committee, or by a Handicapper appointed by the Committee.

20.—The method of handicapping shall be by classes as below:—

GIVEN ODDS

Class O—(Scratch).

Class 1	receives	1-sixth of 15.
" 2	"	2-sixths of 15.
" 3	"	3-sixths of 15.
" 4	"	4-sixths of 15.
" 5	"	5-sixths of 15.
" 6	"	15
" 7	"	15 and 1-sixth of 15.
" 8	"	15 and 2-sixths of 15.
" 9	"	15 and 3-sixths of 15.
" 10	"	15 and 4-sixths of 15.
" 11	"	15 and 5-sixths of 15.
" 12	"	30.
" 13	"	30 and 1-sixth of 15.
" 14	"	30 and 2-sixths of 15.
" 15	"	30 and 3-sixths of 15.
" 16	"	30 and 4-sixths of 15.
" 17	"	30 and 5-sixths of 15.
" 18	"	40.

When two players in different classes below scratch meet, the superior player shall start from scratch, and the odds received by the inferior player are as shown by the tables on following pages. To use the table, find in the diagonal line of figures the number representing the class of the superior player, then travel along the horizontal column until the vertical column is reached which bears at the top the number of the class of the inferior player. The odds specified at the intersection of the two columns are the odds required.

Example.—If class 3 has to meet class 9, start from the figure 3 in the diagonal line of figures, and look horizontally until the vertical column is reached headed by the figure 9. The odds given at the point of intersection of the two columns (viz., 15 and 1-6 of 15) are the odds required.

When the difference between the best and the worst players entered is great (say more than 30), it is desirable to handicap the best players at owed odds. The players above scratch (i. e., owing odds) should be classified as follows:—

OWED ODDS.

Class 1	owes	1-sixth of 15.
" 2	"	2-sixths of 15.
" 3	"	3-sixths of 15.
" 4	"	4-sixths of 15.
" 5	"	5-sixths of 15.
" 6	"	15.
" 7	"	15 and 1-sixth of 15.
" 8	"	15 and 2-sixths of 15.
" 9	"	15 and 3-sixths of 15.
" 10	"	15 and 4-sixths of 15.
" 11	"	15 and 5-sixths of 15.
" 12	"	30.
" 13	"	30 and 1-sixth of 15.
" 14	"	30 and 2-sixths of 15.
" 15	"	30 and 3-sixths of 15.
" 16	"	30 and 4-sixths of 15.
" 17	"	30 and 5-sixths of 15.
" 18	"	40.

HANDICAPS. TABLE No. 1. (Received Odds.)

When two players, both in receipt of odds, meet, the player receiving the smaller odds is put back to scratch. The following table shows the point at which the other should then start. The number at the left of the horizontal columns denotes the player who goes back to scratch, those at the head of the vertical columns the player who still receives odds; and the numbers within the columns show the odds to be received by the player whose number stands at the head of the column.

This table was calculated upon the following data:—

In the case of received odds—

The average value of $\frac{1}{6}$ is .2024
" " " $\frac{2}{6}$ " .3552
" " " $\frac{3}{6}$ " .4811
" " " $\frac{4}{6}$ " .6069
" " " $\frac{5}{6}$ " .7841

Length of a game is 4.6250 strokes.

15.1 means 15 and one-sixth of 15, and so on.

HANDICAPS. TABLE No. 2. (Owed Odds.)

When two players meet who are handicapped to owe odds, the player owing the lesser odds is placed at scratch. This Table shows the odds the other will still owe.

This table has been calculated upon the following data:—

In the case of owed odds—

The average value of 1/6 is .2158
" " " 2/6 " .3929
" " " 3/6 " .5188
" " " 4/6 " .6448
" " " 5/6 " .7975
" " Length of game is 4.6250 strokes.

In using this table supply throughout the word "owe" before the odds specified.

When the two players in different classes above scratch meet, the inferior player shall start from scratch, and the odds owed by the superior player are as shown by the annexed table, No. 2.

This table is to be used in the same way as the former, the class of the superior player being looked for in the horizontal line of figures at the top, and the class of the inferior player in the diagonal line of figures.

Example.—If class 12 (owe 30) meet class 7 (owe 15 and 1-6 of 15), the former must owe the latter the odds of 4-6 of 15.

21.—In Championship matches and handicaps by classes, as above, advantage sets shall be played throughout.

22.—The Committee may, whether appealed to by any Competitor or not, postpone the meeting or any match or part of a match if, in their opinion, the state of the weather, or of the light, or the condition of the ground, or other circumstances, render it advisable to do so. In cases of postponement, Law 25 must be strictly observed.

23.—In all Tournaments sanctioned by the Association the use of spikes longer than one-quarter of an inch is prohibited.

24.—Every organization holding an event sanctioned by the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, must furnish the Ranking Committee, within ten days after the completion of any such event, with a full and complete report of all matches played therein, together with the full name, and, when possible, address, of each contestant.

25.—The Ranking Committee must furnish all clubs and associations holding any such sanctioned event, with blanks for the purpose of making the returns required by Rule 24, and immediately after the Committee shall have completed the ranking, such returns must be delivered to the Secretary of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association.

26.—If any club or association fails to make the returns required, provided for by Rule 24, sanction for holding by the delinquent of any tournament during the following year may be refused in the discretion of the Executive Committee.

REGULATIONS FOR JUNIOR AND INTERSCHOLASTIC AND BOYS' TOURNAMENTS

Any college, club or park association, members directly or indirectly of the U. S. N. L. T. A. may, with the consent of the Association, give Junior or Interscholastic tournaments.

Players in Junior and Interscholastic tournaments shall be limited to boys under twenty years of age and players in Interscholastic tournaments are further limited to boys attending schools preparing for college.

Winners of Junior and Interscholastic tournaments are eligible to play in any one Sectional Junior Championship.

The National Interscholastic Championship has been discontinued, but the winners of the Interscholastic tournaments are eligible to play in the Sectional Junior Championships.

Any club, college, school, or park association, members directly or indirectly of the U. S. N. L. T. A. may, with the consent of the Association, give a Boys' Tournament, open to boys under seventeen years of age. The winners of these tournaments are eligible to play in any one Boys' Sectional Tournament.

There shall be a Sectional Junior Championship and a Sectional Boys' Championship in each of the ten sections, into which the country is now divided by the Constitution of the National Association. The winner of each of the Boys' and Junior Sectional Championships shall be eligible to play respectively in the National Junior and National Boys' Championship, to be held at the same time and place as the National Singles Championship.

In case the winner of a Junior, Interscholastic, or Boys' Tournament or Junior or Boys' Sectional Championship is unable to play, the Committee of Management of the tournament may select another participant to take the place of the winner.

The U. S. N. L. T. A. will provide the prizes for the Sectional Junior and Boys' Championships.

Cases and Decisions

By James Dwight.

THE following Cases and Decisions are intended to meet questions often asked at Tournaments, and also to cover points apparently not provided for in the Laws.

1. A player standing outside the court volleys the ball or catches it in his hand, and claims the stroke because the ball was certainly going out of court.

Decision.—He loses the stroke. It makes no difference where he was standing. The return is presumed good until it strikes the ground outside of the court.

II. A player is struck by the ball served before it has touched the ground, he being outside of the service court. How does it count?

Decision.—The player struck loses the stroke. The service is presumably good until it strikes in the wrong court. A player cannot take the decision upon himself by stopping the ball. If it is going to be a fault; he has only to get out of the way.

III. The service is delivered before the striker-out is ready. He tries to return it and fails. Is he entitled to have it played over again?

Decision.—No. If he attempts to return the service he is deemed ready.

IV. The striker-out calls "Not ready," for a second service. The ball strikes beyond the service line, and the striker-out claims that the fact that he was not ready makes no difference, since a fault cannot be returned, and, therefore, that two faults have been served.

Decision.—The second service goes for nothing. A player cannot call "Not ready," and then have the service count, or not, as suits his interests.

V. A ball having been played over the net bounds back into the court from which it came. The player reaches over the net and plays it before it falls. Has he a right to do so?

Decision.—Yes, provided he does not touch the net. He has a right to play the ball at any time from the moment it crosses the net into his court until it touches the ground a second time.

VI. A ball is played into the net; the player on the other side, thinking that the ball is coming over, strikes at it and hits the net. Who loses the stroke?

Decision.—It is simply a question of fact for the umpire to decide. If the player touched the net while the ball was still in play he loses the stroke.

VII. Can a player follow a ball over the net with his racket, provided that he hits the ball on his own side of the net?

Decision.—Yes. The only restrictions are that he shall not volley the ball until it has crossed the net, and that he shall not touch the net or any of its supports.

VIII. A player's racket slips out of his hand and flies into the net. Does he lose the stroke for hitting the net?

Decision.—Yes, if the ball be still in play. It does not matter if the racket be in a player's hand or not.

IX. A player's racket leaves his hand, but meets the ball and returns it over the net. Is it a good return?

Decision.—Yes. There is no law requiring a racket to be in a player's hand when the ball is returned. It would unquestionably be a good return if the racket were held against the ground by a player's feet, and the ball bounded back off of it.

X. A single match is played with a double net and inside posts. A player touches the net beyond the inside posts, and claims that he does not lose the stroke because there should be no net more than three feet outside of the court.

Decision.—He loses the stroke. The net where he touches it is part of the supports of the net. He might, perhaps, have objected to the arrangement of the net before the match.

XI. A player returns the ball, and, finding that he cannot stop himself before reaching the net, jumps over it. Is it a good return?

Decision.—Law 4 requires that "the players shall stand on opposite sides of the net," and therefore the player invading his opponent's court loses the stroke.

XII. A ball passes outside the post of the net and strikes in court. Is it a good return?

Decision.—Yes.

XIII. A ball going out of court hits the top of the post of the net and bounds into the opposite court.

Decision.—It is a good return.

XIV. The service or the ball in play strikes a ball lying in the court. Can it be returned?

Decision.—Yes, if it be clear to the umpire that the right ball is returned.

XV. The server claims that the striker-out must stand in the court. Is this necessary?

Decision.—No. The striker-out can stand wherever he pleases on his own side of the net.

XVI. A bystander gets in the way of a player, who fails to return the ball. May he then claim a let?

Decision.—Yes, if, in the umpire's opinion, he was prevented by an accident beyond his control. For instance, if the ropes or the seats are allowed to be so near to the court that a player is interfered with by them, the stroke should not be played again, because the ropes and seats form part of the arrangements of the ground. If, however, a spectator passes in front of those seats, or places a chair nearer than the original line, and so interferes with a player, the stroke should be played again.

XVII. A player is interfered with as above, and the umpire directs the stroke to be played again. The server had previously served a fault. He claims the right to two services.

Decision.—The fault stands. A let does not annul a previous fault.

XVIII. A return hits the umpire, or his chair or stand, the player claims that the ball was going into court.

Decision.—Stroke is lost.

XIX. A player receiving fifteen, serves from the left court. His opponent claims a fault.

Decision.—It is a fault. The service starts from the right court under all circumstances.

XX. At fifteen-all the server by mistake serves from the left court, he wins the stroke and serves again a fault, the mistake is then discovered. Is he entitled to the previous stroke? From which court should he serve next?

Decision.—The previous stroke stands. A fault cannot be claimed after the next service, good or not, is delivered. The next service should be from the left court, the score being thirty-fifteen, and the server has served one fault.

XXI. A player serves from the wrong court, he loses the stroke, and then claims that it was a fault.

Decision.—If the stroke was played in his first service it is simply a fault, but if he serves twice into the wrong court he has served two faults, and lost the stroke.

XXII. The score is five games all, and the umpire directs the players to play an advantage set. The advantage game has been won, when it is discovered that no advantage sets are to be played. What is to be done?

Decision.—The set is won at the eleventh game. It is no part of the umpire's duty to decide on the conditions of the matches.

XXIII. A player serves. He hears the umpire call, but cannot hear what he says. He knows that the only two things that the umpire should call are "fault" and "let," and that in neither case can the ball be in play. He, therefore, does not return it, only to find that the umpire has called "play." Has he any redress?

Decision.—No.

XXIV. The umpire calls "fault," and then instantly changes and says "play." The striker-out fails to return the ball, and he claims he was prevented by the umpire, and also that the umpire cannot change his decision.

Decision.—The umpire should call a let and the service be taken again.

XXV. A ball drops near a line, the player appeals, and the umpire calls "play." The player misunderstands the call and lets the ball fall. He then claims to have the stroke played again.

Decision.—The stroke stands.

XXVI.—The ball strikes the ground close to a line, the scorer scores the stroke against the striker. On appeal to the linesman, the latter decided that the ball was not out. Which decision stands?

Decision.—The scorer has no right to consider a ball out until the linesman has called to that effect; therefore, the decision of the latter must be accepted. The decision of a linesman affecting his own line is final.

XXVII. A return strikes the cord running along the bottom of the net and bounds over. Is it a good return?

Decision.—Yes.

XXVIII. During play a ball is thrown into court, and the ball in play strikes it or a player steps on it. May a let be claimed?

Decision.—Yes.

XXIX. The server's first service strikes his partner. Does he lose the stroke or is it a fault?

Decision.—A fault.

XXX. A player serves a fault and it is then discovered that it is his partner's service. Does the fault stand?

Decision.—Yes.

XXXI. In a four-handed competition one player does not appear in time to play, and his partner claims to be allowed to play single-handed against the opposing pair. May he do so?

Decision.—No.

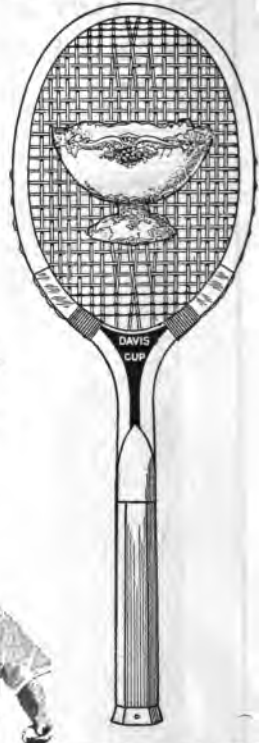
Sutton Star
RACKET

Has a long, narrow head, with a 5¼-inch handle that does not taper until nearly reaching the throat, thus giving a player the same grip when volleying or when using a short grip as in serving or smashing—a distinct advantage; also gives more even balance. The frame is reinforced at the throat with rawhide insertions and bound with whipping, which adds to its durability. Superior quality gut. 13, 13½, 14,

WILLIAM M. JOHNSTON,
National Champion, 1915, and with Clarence Griffin, National Doubles Champion

Davis Cup
RACKET



New oval shape and will be more popular than ever. Dogwood reinforcement at throat; wrapped at shoulders with vellum and gut; strung with superior quality gut, reinforced center strings, giving it increased driving power. An exceptionally strong racket, especially on dirt courts. With 5-inch regular handle or 5¼-inch large handle, in weights 13, 13½, 14,

Ward & Wright Rackets

Two styles of stringing. Style C has extra center strings; popular with ground stroke players. Style B is without the extra strings, making it less rigid and better for volleying. Frame of specially selected ash. Strengthened at the throat with hardwood insertions and securely bound. Gut used is superior quality, noted for its life and driving qualities. In weights from 13 to 15 ounces. For players who like an extra large handle Ward & Wright, we have them in weights 13½, 14, 14¼, 14½ and 15 ounces. Ea., $8.00

When ordering, state the Weight and Style—C or B—desired.

LONGWOOD TOURNAMENT NET POSTS

Made of iron, enameled green, fitted with a very strong reel for making the rope tight, with hooks on the side to lace the net close to the pole, as shown in cut. The anchor that goes with this post is made of one piece, with three prongs, bent at the end, so that they may be driven in the ground, making the anchor absolutely rigid and secure. It is by far the neatest and strongest post ever used on a tennis court. . . Pair, $20.00

Longwood Posts, without claws . . . " 15.00

The above Tennis Posts and Nets make the ideal tennis court. Neat, durable and the very best for all purposes.

NOTE—The posts should be set 3 feet outside the side line. 42 feet is the regulation length for a double court net, and 33 feet for a single court net.

NEWPORT NET POSTS

This style is especially desirable wherever it is a convenience to be able to remove the posts. The anchorage holds the posts perfectly rigid and is placed flush with the ground so that a mowing machine or roller can be run over it without damage to either. Made of yellow pine; strongly and finely finished; fitted with substantial reel. . . . . Pair, $10.00

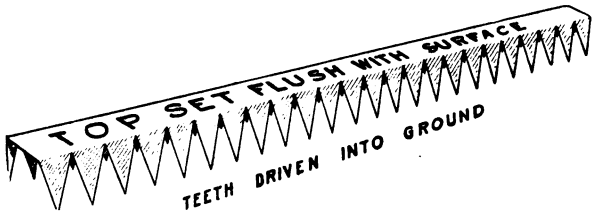
TYPICAL SECTION

National Tennis Tapes

(PATENTED)



Are thin strips of galvanized iron firmly held in place by the continuous teeth, as shown, and are always flush with the ground. We recommend these tapes as a PRACTICAL way of PERMANENTLY marking out

DIRT OR CLAY COURTS

A few of the many advantages that these tapes offer over the old methods are as follows:

TRIPPING ON THEM IS IMPOSSIBLE.

THEY CANNOT BE OBLITERATED IN PLAY, OR WASHED OUT BY RAIN.

THEY ARE PERMANENT AND PRACTICAL, AND WILL LAST THE ENTIRE SEASON.

Prices: Single Court, $12; Double Court, $15
